FORTIETH CONGRESS.

Indian Affairs—The Admission of North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama—The Government Buildings at Pittsburgh—Relief from Political Disabilities—Mails for Europe—Case of Woolly—The Tax Bill.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, June 10, 1868.

SENATE.

The Chair submitted a communication from the Secretary of the Interior, enclosing the opinion of General Sherman, as one of the Indian Commissioners, that immediate action should be taken in the matter of the Sioux and Nevada Indians. Referred.

The bill amending the act for carrying mails between the United States and foreign ports, which rescinds the prepayment of letter postage on newspapers between the States and Territories west of Kansas, except when sent from the publication office, was passed after some debate.

Mr. WILSON introduced a bill for the organization, government and payment of the army, which was referred to the Committee on Military Affairs.

Mr. MORRILL, of Maine, from the Committee of Conference on the Navy appropriation bill made a report recommending concurrence in the provision that civil engineers and storekeepers of the several navy yards be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and that master mechanics be appointed by heads of the Navy. The Committee recommend other unimportant amendments. The report was concurred in.

At the expiration of the morning hour, the special order, the bill to admit North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama to representation in Congress, was taken up. The question was on the amendment of Mr. SHERMAN to strike out the additional fundamental conditions imposed on Georgia, of striking from her Constitution the provisions preventing the enforcement of contracts made prior to June, 1865.

Mr. WILLIAMS spoke in favor of the amendment, and Messrs. HOWARD and CONKLING followed, arguing that the clause of the Georgia Constitution is unconstitutional and void.

Mr. HOWE supported the provision, and Mr. MORTON opposed it, and after further discussion a vote was taken on the amendment, and it was rejected—8 against 34.

Mr. WILLIAMS moved to strike out the provision just under debate and insert the words, "That so much of the seventeenth section of the fifth article of the Constitution of Georgia as suspends the collection of debts contracted before June 1st, 1865, shall be void as against all persons who were loyal during the late rebellion, and who during that time supported the Union."

After some opposition by Messrs. MORTON and CONKLING, the amendment was rejected without division.

Mr WILLIAMS moved to amend the third section by inserting the following, "and thereupon officers of each State duly elected and qualified under the Constitution, shall be inaugurated without delay, but no person prohibited from holding office under the under the United States or by any State, by section third of the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States, known as article 14th, shall be deemed eligible to any office in either of said States.

Mr. EDMUNDS and others opposed the latter clause of the amendment on the ground it forestalls the fourteenth amendment. Congress cannot dictate who shall be its officers. After considerable debate Mr. Edmunds asked for a division of the question on the amendment, and the question taken on the first part agreed to—yeas 23, nays 17.

The second clause was agreed to by nearly the same vote—26 to 15.

Mr. DRAKE moved to amend by striking out the provision forbidding any future abridgement of the election franchise and inserting the corresponding provisions of the Arkansas bill. He explained that a Conference Committee having already settled upon the latter, it was desirable that all Constitutions shall be the same. The amendment was agreed to without division.

The substitute of the Judiciary Committee was then adopted as amended and the question being on the bill as amended, Mr. Trumbull moved to strike out the word Alabama.

After the debate, Mr. CONKLING moved to add the following: "And the State of Alabama shall be admitted to representation only upon this further fundamental condition, that section 26th of article 1st of the Constitution of said State, except so much thereof as makes the navigation a public highway, shall be null and void, and that the General Assembly of said State by solemn act shall declare the consent of the State to the foregoing fundamental condition."

After further discussion, Mr. Trumbull's motion was rejected—yeas 16, nays 24.

Mr. Conkling's amendment was rejected by 16 against 23.

Mr. WILLIAMS moved to add at the end of this amendment in regard to the inauguration of officers the words, "unless relieved from disability by said amendment," which was agreed to.

Mr. SUMNER observed that himself, Mr. Yates and several other Senators desired to speak on the subject, and moved to adjourn. Rejected 19 to 21.

Mr. YATES declined to speak to-night in face of a desire for an immediate vote. An endeavor was made to come to an agreement to take the vote to-morrow, but the majority refused.

Mr. SUMNER took the floor shortly before nine o'clock, reading from manuscript, and very few of the Senators remaining in their seats.

Mr. BUCKALEW made half an hour's speech against the bill.

At 10:30 the Senate proceeded to vote, and the bill passed—yeas 31, nays 5, viz.: Messrs. Bayard, Buckalew, McCreery, Patterson, (Tenn.,) and Vickers. Mr. Saulsbury was paired with Willey, Mr. Davis with Mr. Morton, and Mr. Hendricks with Mr. Van Winkle. Mr. Norton was absent from illness.

Adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. MOORHEAD reported by authority of the Committee of Ways and Means, a bill prepared by said Committee to increase the revenue from duties on imports, which was ordered to be printed, and was referred to the Committe of Ways and Means. He also offered a resolution, calling on the Secretary of the Treasury for information as to the condition of the Government building at Pittsburgh used for Custom House and Postoffice. Adopted.

Mr. PAINE, from the Committee on Reconstruction, reported a bill to relieve from political disabilities Wm. W. Harrison and James R. Boyer, of Arkansas, the former Justice elect of the Supreme Court, and the latter Auditor of State. Various questions were put to Mr. Paine by Messrs. Miller, Mullens, Maynard and others, as to the past political status of these men. Mr. Paine replied that the men in question had been implicated in the rebellion, but were now true and loyal, and were so endorsed by the delegation to Congress from Arkansas.

Mr. GARFIELD in reply to objections to the bill, quoted General Scott's prediction that when the war was over it would be almost impossible to restrain the fury of the non-combatants.

After a pretty lively discussion the bill was passed by a two-thirds vote.

Mr. STOKES asked leave to introduce a bill to form three additional States out of Texas.

Mr. BROOKS odjected.

Mr. COBB, from the Committee on Conference on the bill for the relief of John M. Palmer, made a report which was agreed to.

The House resumed business. The bill authorizing the Postmaster General to contract with an American steamship company to carry mails to Europe, considered.

Mr. WASHBURNE, of Illinois, moved to amend the first section by providing it should not be construed into allowing the Postmaster General to retain and accumulate mail in order to send by ships of this line.

Mr. DELANO proposed a proviso that when the receipts from sea postages, under this act, shall exceed or equal $400,000 per annum then the rights of the Company to receive inland postages shall cease.

Mr. SHELLABARGER moved a proviso that the government shall have the right within the twenty years for which the contract is to run to terminate or abandon the contract.

Pending the amendment, Mr. CLARKE, of Kansas, moved to table the bill, which was negatived. The amendment was agreed to, and the bill passed.

The morning hour having expired, the SPEAKER stated that the first business in order was the bill reported from the Committee on Commerce, on the 27th of May, and postponed until to-day, being a bill for the protection of American commerce.

Mr. WASHBURNE, Illinois, from the Conference Committee on the Naval Appropriation bill, made a report, which was agreed to.

Mr. FARNSWORTH, from the Postoffice Committee, reported a bill to provide for the erection of a building for Postoffice and United States Courts in New York. This was ordered to be printed and recommitted.

Mr. ELDRIDGE asked Mr. Eliot to yield to him that he might offer a resolution instructing the Committee of Impeachment Managers to examine the witness Woolley immediately, so that if he answers the question, for refusal to answer which he was adjudged in contempt, he may not be longer deprived of liberty as a citizen.

Mr. BUTLER—I desire to say for the information of the gentlemen on the other side, that the meeting of the Committee of Managers is called for to-morrow morning, at which time Mr. Woolley shall be examined.

Mr. ELDRIDGE—The conduct of the Committee is all wrong and unjust to the witness. They ought to examine him at once; they have no right to keep him in prison for twenty-four hours or three days when he is ready to answer before the Committee. I protest against it as an outrage on the liberty of the citizen.

Mr. BUTLER was about to reply but Mr. Eliot declined to yield further.

Mr. ELIOT remarked there had been a notice given of his intention to make a motion in relation to the pending tax bill, but that he did not desire to interfere with any action of the House, and if his bill could have to-morrow the same position that it now had, he would yield the floor.

That proposition being assented to, Mr. SCHENCK moved that the rules be suspended, and the House resolved itself into Committee of the Whole on the tax bill.

Mr. BUTLER inquired whether it was possible for the House to deal with the tax bill otherwise than by voting down the motion to go into Committee.

The SPEAKER replied, if a motion was voted down a motion to postpone the tax bill would be in order.

Mr. WASHBURNE, of Illinois—If this is to be a test vote, and I understand the gentleman from Massachusetts proposes to offer a resolution instructing the Committee of Ways and Means—

Mr. SCHENCK, interrupting, "I object to any debate."

Mr. WASHBURNE—The House understands the question, I demand the yeas and nays. The vote was then taken and resulted—ayes, eighty-two, nays, fifty-seven.

The House thereupon went into Committee, and resumed the consideration of the tax bill, commencing on page 109, the paragraph imposing a special tax on cattle brokers. The paragraph relating to proprietors of bowling alleys and billiard rooms was amended by making the tax $25 instead of $10. The paragraph relating to jewelers was amended by including in the description persons who manufacture goods or wares of gold or silver, and the paragraph relating to the manufacture of gold and silver was struck out. The paragraph relating to warehouses was amended to read "proprietor of United States bonded ware houses for storage of articles in bond."

Mr. LOGAN argued against bonded warehouses, and wanted to have the description simply use the words "United States Custom Warehouses."

Mr. SCHENCK replied that the bugbear which Mr. Logan saw in the paragraph had no existence whatever.

Mr. LOGAN moved to amend by making the description "United States Custom Warehouses for the storage of merchandise."

Mr. SCHENCK explained that even if all the exportation of whisky from this country were stopped there would still be bonded warehouses required for customs at the distilleries, and the question was whether the proprietors of all bonded warehouses should or should not be taxed. Whisky was as much merchandise as cloth.

Mr. SPAULDING moved to amend the paragraph relating to distillers of oil by making the first sentence read: "Distillers of oil who shall manufacture no more than 10,000 barrels a year shall pay $25; those who manufacture more than 10,000 barrels and less than 15,000 barrels shall pay $50, and all who manufacture more than 15,000 barrels annually shall pay $75."

Mr. SCHOFIELD suggested that that amendment be also reserved, as he felt confident that the specific tax on oil would be removed.

The amendment was reserved. After considerable discussion by Messrs. Logan, Judd and Schenck, in favor of the amendment offered by Mr. Logan, it was rejected.

Mr. SCHOFIELD moved to amend the paragraph relating to dealers in petroleum by making the description "owner or operator of an oil well" read "owner and lessee or operator of a productive oil well." Agreed to.

Mr. WOODWARD moved to strike out the paragraph. Rejected.

Mr. ALLISON moved to amend the paragraph by making an additional tax for every ten thousand in excess of ten thousand of $2 instead of $1. The amendment was reserved.

Mr. SCHENCK moved to amend the paragraph relating to distillers by adding the following proviso: "Provided, That no tax shall be imposed for any still or other apparatus used by druggists or chemists for the recovery of alcohol for pharmaceutical, chemical or scientific purposes, which has been used in that process."

Mr. LOGAN argued against the amendment as opening a door for frauds.

Mr. SCHENCK replied to the argument, and stated that the proviso was contained in the existing law. The amendment was agreed to.

Mr. SCHENCK proposed to amend the paragraph by making a special tax on distillers $1,000 instead of $200, and five dollars instead of one dollar for every barrel produced in excess of 200 barrels, so that if the direct tax on whisky should be reduced, the special tax might be increased. He proposed that the amendment and paragraph be reserved until after the question on the direct tax be disposed of.

Mr. MAYNARD suggested that the four preceding paragraphs relating to rectifiers, compounders, retail liquor dealers and wholesale dealers in liquor be reserved. The paragraphs were reserved.

The paragraph relating to manufacturers of stills was amended by striking out the words "for sale."

The paragraph relating to malsters or malt dealers was struck out.

Mr. SPALDING moved to amend the paragraph relating to brewers, by reducing the tax from $100 to $50. Rejected.

Mr. VAN AUKEN moved to make the first sentence of the paragraph read: Brewers whose sales amount to $10,000 shall pay $15; above $10,000 shall pay $100. Rejected.

A recess was here taken.

HOUSE—EVENING SESSION.—The Tax bill was resumed. No amendment was made to the paragraph relating to brewers. Several verbal amendments were made to the paragraph relating to dealers in leaf tobacco.

On motion of Mr. WASHBURNE, Massachusetts, the first sentence of that paragraph was amended to read: "Dealers in leaf tobacco whose annual sales do not exceed $1,000 shall each pay $25, and if their annual sales exceed $1,000, for every additiodal $10,000 in excess of $10,000 they shall pay $2.

Mr. TRIMBLE, Ky., moved to strike out the paragraph, and argued in its support.

Mr. SCHENCK made an argument on the other side.

The motion was rejected.

Mr. LOGAN moved to strike out of the paragraph the provision requiring those who shall sell less than fifty pounds of leaf tobacco at any one time to make a monthly return of the aggregate of such sales, and pay a tax thereon of sixteen cents per pound.

The paragraph relating to dealers in tobacco was amended to read, "Dealers in tobacco whose annual sales do not exceed $1,000 shall each pay five dollars, and if their annual sales exceed $1,000, shall pay in addition two dollars for each additional $1,000 in excess of $1,000."

Mr. STEWART moved to strike out of the paragraph that part which requires hotel keepers who sell tobacco, snuff or cigars to pay a special tax of tobacco dealers. Rejected with an understanding that it may be renewed in the House. Several other amendments were offered and rejected. No amendment excepting verbal were made to the paragraph relating to manufactures of cigars. Several amendments to the paragraph relating to cigar makers were rejected, and finally a substitute was agreed to, imposing a penalty on the manufacturer who employs unregistered cigar maker.

The first sentence of the last paragraph in the section relating to manufacturers, not otherwise changed, was amended to read: "Manufacturers whose annual sales don't exceed $5,000 shall each pay ten dollars, and if no specific or stamp tax is imposed on their products they shall pay in addition two dollars for each one thousand dollars in excess, provided, no person shall be regarded as a manufacturer who simply makes butter and cheese or either for their own consumption or for market.

Mr. FERRY moved to exempt lumber and breadstuffs. A debate ensued and without disposing of the question.

The Committee then rose and the House adjourned.

Louisville Board of Trade.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

LOUISVILLE, June 10.—Messrs. George N. Stewart, of Mobile, and L. R. Shryock, of St. Louis, addressed the members of the Board of Trade and citizens of Louisville to-day upon the subject of opening Bayou Manchac. At the conclusion of their addresses, which were attentively listened to, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, We deem it a duty to the commercial interests of our city and State to secure all outlets and inlets to commerce and trade, as well as to aid with whatever means we have to establishing facilities of communications with all sections, either to the Ocean or the Gulf; And Whereas, The project of reopening Bayou Manchac with the lower Mississippi has been advocated by the cities of Mobile, St. Louis, Cincinnati, and Muscatine, through their representatives from those cities, who are now in our midst; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Louisville Board of Trade heartily endorse all efforts made to open and extend the trade of the Southwest to unite the commercial and material interests of the West with those of the South if practicable.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Board be heartily tendered the gentlemen representing the cities of Mobile, St. Louis, Cincinnati and Muscatine for their efforts in behalf of the commerce presented in the feasibility of the reopening of Manchac Bayou.

The New Jersey Democracy.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

TRENTON, June 10.—There was a large attendance at the State Democratic Convention, and great unanimity of sentiment. Resolutions were adopted expressing devotion to the Constitution with all its limitations of the powers of the Federal Government, say that the suffrage question belongs to the States and any legislation therein by Congress is an infringement of their reserved rights; charge the Republican party with a gross violation of the rights of States and individuals, and of the most flagrant acts of tyranny and corruption; oppose all forms of repudiation of the National indebtedness, and express gratitude to the soldiers and sailors; pledge support to the nominees of the National Convention, and would feel honored by the nomination of Joel Park, Jr., for the Presidency. A full list of delegates was selected, including Thomas Mekeen, J. R. Wortendyke, Richard F. Stevens and Francis S. Lathrop.

Salaries of Customs Officials—Groesbeck and the Treasury Secretaryship—Gens. Rosseau and Hancock—Alabama.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, June 10, 1868.

THE DEFICIENCY BILL—SALARIES OF CUSTOMS OFFICIALS.

The deficiency bill, in which was included the deficiency for Custom House officials, having passed both Houses and received the signature of the President, the Treasury Department to-day mailed drafts to the different Collectors of Customs to satisfy their demand for salaries of officials belonging to the Custom branch of service.

GROESBECK AND THE TREASURY SECRETARYSHIP.

It is understood that the President has written a letter to Hon. W. S. Groesbeck, of Ohio, tendering him the office of Secretary of the Treasury, and that the matter is being held by him under advisement, although it is believed in certain well-informed quarters that the appointment will be accepted.

PERSONAL.

General Rosseau has been granted permission from the War Department to delay six weeks in joining his command of the Department of Columbia.

Gen. Hancock and staff called on the Chinese Embassy this morning.

ALABAMA.

General Meade came here to urge that Alabama be left out of the omnibus reconstruction bill. The Senate Judiciary Committee has instructed its Chairman, Mr. Trumbull, that in case Alabama is omitted from the bill to report the bill, which passed the House in March, providing that the Constitution be admitted for ratification and shall be an organic law for a provisional Government of the State and shall again be submitted to the people for ratification.

LEGISLATIVE AND APPROPRIATION BILL.

The Senate Finance Committee has authorized their Chairman to report the legislative and appropriation bill, amended by restoring salaries for clerks, struck out by the House, and by increasing the amount appropriated also at half a million.

FROM EUROPE.

Proposed International Treaty—Sale of Austrian State Domain—Financial and Commercial.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

GERMANY.

BERLIN, June 10.—The North German Confederation propose to the Great Powers of Europe and America, on the adoption of an international treaty, to guarantee absolute security from seizure of private property upon the high seas in time of war.

The Prussian Government is about to commence works for the extension and strengthening of the fortifications of Cologne.

AUSTRIA.

VIENNA, June 10.—The Reichsrath has adopted a bill providing for the sale of the State domain.

NEW ORLEANS.

Municipal Trouble—Mayor Heath Displaced.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW ORLEANS, June 10.—Mayor Heath refused to surrender his office to-day to Conway, the newly elected Mayor, claiming that his appointment was confirmed by Congress, and declining to recognize Gen. Buchanan's authority to remove him. He was consequently placed in the hands of the police by Capt. D. Russey, of the General's staff, and Conway put in charge of the office. Judge Dupaulier issued a writ of quo warranto upon Conway, but Capt. D. Russey said as Conway was installed it must take its proper course and could not interfere with the discharge of his duties. Upon the delivery of the keys and books Heath was released on parole. Considerable excitement prevails and a strong body of police are stationed at City Hall.

Platform of the Connecticut Democracy.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, June 10.—The resolutions of the Democratic State Committee of Connecticut maintain that the States are sovereign in all powers not delegated to the general Government, and regard the reconstruction acts as military despotism and Freedmen Bureaus as wanton violations of the rights of States; the State Republican party having repudiated the Constitution, it cannot be trusted in any of its present or future promises; regarding slavery as dead and declaring the assertion that the Democratic party design or desire to restore it as a wicked invention; denounce impeachment and commend the conscientious scruples of the Republican Senators who voted against it; acknowledge the services of soldiers and sailors and believe while he would be proud of recognition of the service of one of their own citizens by the National Convention, that all personal and local considerations should be yielded to achieve success and save the country from tyranny and misrule.

A Second Mrs. Grinder.

By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

CLEVELAND, O., June 10.—The trial of Mrs. Victor for the murder of Wm. Parnet, her brother, in July, 1867, commenced to-day. The jury was empannelled and but one witness only examined. On an examination of the body last February, eleven months after death, a large quantity of arsenic appeared. Mrs. Victor had a policy of life insurance on him for $8,600 when he died.

Chartiers Railroad Meeting—Reports of the Committees to Take Subscriptions—$170,000 Subscribed—the Effort to be Continued.

In accordance with previous notice an adjourned meeting in the interest of the Chartiers Railroad enterprise, was held in Canonsburg, on Saturday afternoon of last week. The interest attaching to the project drew together a goodly number of the people, who manifested no little anxiety to learn with what success the committees to solicit subscription had met with, and what prospect there was for the completion of the road. At the hour appointed the people assembled in the Prayer Hall at the College, Col. Hopkins, President of the former meeting, taking the chair.

The meeting being organized and ready for business, Mr. Ewing remarked that the purpose for which they had assembled was well understood. Committees had been appointed at the former meeting to wait on the people and see what could be done towards raising the amount to complete the road. This meeting was held mainly for the purpose of hearing from those committees, and he suggested that they be called upon to report.

The chair requested the committees, or such of them as were present, to lead in their reports, whereupon subscriptions were announced as follows:

Canonsburg and vicinity, (Mr. Greer.)	$ 25,600
" " (Mr. Houston.)	18,000
Chartiers, (Mr. M'Connell.)	5,000
North Strabane, (Mr. Litton.)	15,000
Cecil	2,300
Washington	39,850
South Strabane, (Mr. Munce.)	3,200
Franklin, (W. B. M'Kennan.)	4,900
Upper Chartiers and Canton, (W. B. Cundall.)	7,300
Franklin and Amwell, (Mr. M'Elroy.)	1,250
Bridgeville and vicinity, (Mr. Murray.)	24,300
Pittsburghers owning property on the line, (Mr. Neal.)	13,700
	$ 160,400

The above reports having been footed up and the aggregate announced to the meeting, the gentlemen composing the committee were asked what probability there was of obtaining additional subscriptions in their respective localities.

After some discussion of the matter an opportunity to increase their subscriptions was afforded to all who wished to do so, when several persons authorized theirs to be doubled, others added fifty per cent., and still others twenty-five per cent., thus carrying up the aggregate to about $170,000.

On motion, D. T. Morgan, Joshua Wright, Craig Ritchie and Mr. Neel, were appointed a committee to solicit subscriptions in Pittsburgh.

On motion, Messrs. John McBride and Vaneman Johnson were added to the committee to solicit subscriptions in North Strabane.

On motion the meeting then adjourned to meet at the same place on Friday, the 19th inst.

MORTGAGES.

Same day there were left in the office for record six mortgages.

Senatorial Corruption.

A Washington special says: The report of the Impeachment Investigation Committee will be made by the middle of the coming week. It will cover the whole ground of the investigation, and include all material testimony taken. It will attract more general attention than the first report. The managers have in their possession a card written on both sides, and sent from Colonel Cooper to the President, in which the following occurs: "Henderson is secured. Craig and Lacey have seen him." The person referred to as Craig is from St. Joseph, Missouri. He is here and will be called as a witness. A former clerk to the Senate committee of which Pomeroy was chairman, and wso franked the latter's documents, testified yesterday that he had been urged twice by a special agent of the Postoffice Department to write a letter similar to the one Cooper swore had been shown him purporting to be from Pomeroy. The second time the clerk says he was offered one thousand dollars to write such a letter, but he positively refused. The person making this offer has been sent for.

New Orleans Market.

NEW ORLEANS, June 10.—Cotton is quiet and weak at 27½a28c for middlings; sales 1,100 bales; receipts 12 bales. Sterling at 152½a154½. New York Sight Exchange ¾ premium. Gold 139½. Sugar and Molasses dull for Cuba; good to fine grocery sugar at 13¼c; Louisiana reboiled molasses at 55a90c. Flour dull at $8,25a8,50 for superfiine, and $12,50a13 for choice. Corn quiet at 97ca$1,05. Oats at 75c, holders asking higher, Pork firm at $29. Shoulders firmer at 13½c; clear sides at 17½c. Lard unsettled at 18½c for tierce, and 20c keg.

Albany Cattle Market.

ALBANY, June 10.—Cattle are rather slow sale this week and prices are down ¼a½c, and of 4000 head received 3000 head were sold or shipped to New York on first hands; prices were $5,50a10. Sheep are in good request at ¼a½c advance. Receipts 4500; sales of 2500 at $5,50a7,50. Hogs in good request at $6,50a9; sales 1500 to go east. Receipts 4000.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

TO THE BEAUTY OF A SEASON.

FROM LONDON SOCIETY.

When first I knew thee, Mirabel,
Thy cheek with Nature's roses glowed,
Thy golden locks I loved so well
In unadorned luxuriance flowed:
Thy gentle eyes of heaven's own hue
Threw glances innocent of art,
And mirrored in their depths of blue
Each movement of thy guileless heart.

But all is changed now, Mirabel—
That piled up hair, those clust'ring curls,
With store of borrowed tresses swell
That once were some poor peasant girl's;
The stain of carmine ill supplies
The banished grace of blushes red;
And where truth only lit thine eyes
False belladonna gleams instead.

When first I loved thee, Mirabel,
And for my love no favor found,
My heart sustained the anguish fell
Of what I deemed a deadly wound;
But since I've seen thy every charm
Debased into a painted lie,
I feel my heart is healed from harm,
And bid my pain and thee good-bye.

EPHEMERIS.

—Fechter is acting in Paris.

—News are almost as scarce as greenbacks.

—Punch calls Mr. George Peabody "a king at alms."

—Tornados are mischievously amusing themselves out West.

—New buildings are to be erected for the College in Jacksonville, Ill.

—Rutland, Vermont, is to have a theatre larger than any in Pittsburgh.

—Gen. Rosecrans arrived at New York from San Francisco last Friday.

—Pirate Simmes has hung out a shingle and gone to practicing law in Mobile.

—The Queen of England thinks the galop is an undignified and unseemly dance.

—Truman Gustril sowed the first wheat ever planted in Ohio, at Marietta, in 1798.

—The track of the Union Pacific Railroad is laid for one hundred miles west of Cheyenne.

—The Chinese were wonderfully impressed with Gideon Welles and his fine white beard.

—Watermelons are already reckoned among the cheaper luxuries of New Orleans tables.

—A limited joint-stock company to grow asparagus has been started in the west of England.

—Mayne Ried, the Walter Scott of the juveniles, has gone back to his home in England.

—Prince Napoleon is again a political missionary; at least he is visiting the Emperor of Austria.

—Hannibal Hamlin was recently elected President of the Bangor and Piscataquis Railroad in Maine.

—The Chicageese are brazen beyond doubt. They speak of New York as the Chicago of the East.

—A monument has been set up in the dark shades of the Mammoth Cave by the sons of Temperance.

—Ole Bull was presented with an elegant gold watch and chain at a musical reception in New York last Friday.

—The Prince of Denmark—not Hamlet, but the present heir to the throne—has been visiting the Sultan of Turkey.

—The New York Press Club is to give a breakfast to the Sorosis, or to as much as remains of that interesting body.

—The Vendetta is by no means a thing of the past in Corsica. Only recently an aggravated instance took place.

—The King of Siam has eighty-one heirs to his throne, all his own children. Without doubt, he has a quiver full of them.

—Rev. Henry Ward Beecher is said to favor the election of Mr. Chase as President, but it is Thurlow Weed who says so.

—Senator Grimes is getting better; we hope that his politics may keep up with his corporosity in the march of improvement.

—Persons desiring to make an investment in real estate may like to know that the Athenaeum Club House in New York is for sale.

—Gen. Banks is taking an active part in the campaign in Massachusetts. He has already spoken several times at Grant meetings.

—Unfortunate persons who desire illustrious precedents, should be glad to know that the Prince of Wales is bald and is getting grey.

—It is thought that the Chinese Embassy meditate a descent on Saratoga, as they took 83 trunks full of luggage with them to Washington.

—Annonymous letters, threatening personal violence, have been sent to Mrs. Gaines, because she is trying to get hold of her property.

—Four out-door sermons were preached in Chicago last Sunday. An exchange says it is because they can't get the people to go into a church.

—Senator Ross thinks it will be too hot for him in Kansas this summer and so intends to try and keep cool at an eastern watering-place.

—Josiah Piper, of Pipesville, is wearying audiences in Hong Kong. He has a new entertainment, styled "3,600 seconds in China and Japan."

—Kit Carson was a Virginian; he was born in Norfolk, and was of more credit to that State than many another with a more high-sounding name.

—864,000 pine apples have been sent to this country from the West Indies this season, and Florida has contributed her share of the same delicious fruit.

—Archbishop Spaulding, of Baltimore, has requested the clergy and laity of his Diocese to pray throughout the whole month of June for pleasant weather.

—A young Cincinnatian amused himself rather seriously the other day. He put a metallic cartridge on a horse railroad track—just for fun—and it shot him.

—During the heavy thunder storm on Friday the lightning struck the spire of St. James Episcopal Church in Buffalo, fortunately, however, doing but little damage.

—Queen Victoria has decided to give a series of State breakfasts in honor of the return of the Duke of Edinburgh, just as soon as that interesting event takes place.

—The Piedmontese flower sellers and fiddlers, who form so conspicuous an element in the streets of Paris, have come under the bane of Gensdármerie and are to be suppressed.

—A French chemist claims to have discovered the way to make diamonds and other precious stones, so that they can be sold for less money than the natural articles.

—Marrying for money is one of the doctrines preached by a Universalist minister in New Haven. There are more persons who practice this doctrine than there are parsons who preach it.

—A London critic winds up a bit of fine writing, all about the genius of M'lle Castellan, a French violinist, by saying that "her violin must be the coffin in which is buried the soul of Paganini."

—Democratic papers speak of soldier candidates derisively as "loyal millions." The attempted derision does not much matter, and as for the soldiers they have the votes of the loyal millions and their hearts too.

—We don't think it would be a bad idea to suppress the use of fire crackers on the fourth of July; but we can distinctly remember a time when we should have considered the suppressien as much a crime as murder or treason.

—General Grant has written a letter endorsing the Washington Young Men's Christian Association, on account of its favorable influence exercised on the numerous youths collected in the Capital from all parts of the country.

—A Saxon officer, Lieutenant Miersch, has invented an improvement for the needle gun, by which that arm can be fired thirteen times a minute instead of only eight, as heretofore, and the improvement only costs two groschens, or five cents, for each gun.

—The yellow fever is raging fearfully in Lima, where deaths from it average something like two hundred and fifty per day. Captain Blakely, the inventor of the renowned Blakely gun, and Sig. Pedro Fortuna, a well known opera tenor, have fallen victims to it.

—A Democratic paper in Indiana has had the impudence to propose as a Democratic ticket "Pendleton and Sherman." It thinks that as the Lieutenant General refused the questionable honor of the first place on the ticket, he may be willing to bury his head in the pockets of Mr. Pendleton.

—The German Zollverein, by a vote of 190 against 99, have refused to lay an impost tax upon petroleum, considering it one of the chief necessaries of life among the people of Germany. Deputy Gunther, of Saxony, said, "disarm a hundred thousand men of the army and you will not need this tax."

—Tupper still persists in writing, but what is far more singular, some one must still persist in reading what he writes, as his books sell. The readers, we think, must be those people who think that there must be some good in every man, and are searching anxiously for evidence from Tupper to support their theory.

—Mr. Johnson, speaking of the taunts flung at him, because he was a tailor, very truly says that "occupation never disgraced a man who never disgraced his craft." But we fear that it is the tailors who feel most severely the taunt, in the fact that the ex-Vice President once used the needle. Tailoring never disgraced Andrew Johnson. Can as much be said the other way?

—Some persons object to the public decoration of graves, because the idea came from the rebels. But as the rebels did not originate the beautiful custom we may as well follow, as we cannot lead them in it. The Athenians decorated the tombs of their fallen heroes, and they got the idea from Egypt. The modern Germans do so now, and the occupant of that grave in the Fatherland which remains undecorated on St. John's day must have been friendless indeed.

Period of the Growth of Man.

Professor B. A. Gould, from statistics derived from the register of 2,500,000 men in the United States army, has brought out the fact that men attain their maximum stature much later than is generally supposed. This takes place at twenty-nine or thirty years of age; but there are frequent instances of growth until thirty-five, not very noticeable—a yearly gain of a tenth of an inch, perhaps, still a growth. After thirty-five, the stature subsides in similar proportions, partly, perhaps, from the condensation of the cartilages; partly because of the change in the angle of the hip bone. The age for maximum stature comes earliest to the tallest men, as if it were the necessity of unusual development. Foreigners were shorter than men of native birth. The heights of men seem to depend on the place of enlistment. A Massachusetts man enlisting in Iowa was an inch taller than if he had stayed at home. As we go West, men grow taller. One man measured more than six feet ten inches. Out of one million there were five hundred who measured more than six feet four inches; but men of such stature do not wear well. In Maine, men reach their greatest hight at twenty-seven; in New Hampshire, at thirty-five; in Massachusetts, at thirty-one. The tallest men, of sixty-nine inches, come from Iowa. Maine, Vermont, Ohio, Indiana, Minnesota and Missouri give us men of a little over sixty-eight; and the average of all shows the Americans to be a very tall people.

THE Boston Bulletin after speaking glowingly of the immense increase in the use of flowers in this country says: Floriculture is an art, which, to be prosecuted with the most successful and profitable, results, must call to its aid not merely an educated taste, but a wide range of knowledge touching that branch of natural history which relates to the peculiar characteristics of the vegetable kingdom. As a profession, it probably requires as high degree of practical skill and nicety of discrimination, as any of those tasteful pursuits which are denominated fine arts.

The flower trade is also a lucrative business, and is becoming more so every year, notwithstanding the increased cost of production. Though the crop raised by profession al gardeners and greenhouse proprietors—to say nothing of amateur cultivators,—has probably increased ten-fold during the last decade, the demand has more than kept pace with the supply. The fact that flower prices are continually doubling up, does not seem to check the consumption, which is gradually extending to all classes of our people. With the natural growth of society in wealth and refinement, they are every year indulging more freely in such matters of taste.

—Moses Johnson was murdered and robbed in his own house, in Brookfield, Madison county, New York, last week. He was butchered with an axe and his body then thrown into a well.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, June 10, 1868.

CRUDE—The market is in a very unsettled and sensitive condition. Quite a number of dealers feel very sensitive. and with good reason, too, and the least reference or slightest intimation to anything not in accordance with their respective interests, makes them squirm as if it were a matter of life and death. The feeling between the bulls and bears is just as bitter as ever, and as these two elements embrace all or nearly all engaged in the business, it is very difficult, we might say impossible, for a reporter to avoid saying something that is not unpleasant to either one side or the other; the slightest intimation in regard to the production, is sure to make one side or the other accuse you of having done so for effect, while if anything is said derogatory to the wild and speculative spirit which has been a leading characteristic of the business for some time past, the reporter is sure to be accused of being in the interest of the bears. As we have already stated, the market is in a very peculiar condition, and, no difference which course it takes, somebody is bound to be hurt; those who are short, want to see a regular old "break down," while those who are long, are doing all they can to bolster it up. There is no middle ground and parties engaged in the business, are, by sheer force of circumstances, compelled to take one side or the other, and hence the snarling and jungling which has prevailed for the last sixty days, and still prevails, and, judging from present indications, is likely to continue for some time to come. To outsiders the situation is decidedly interesting, and we have an idea that a good many who are now in the fight would like to be out of it. There was but a single sale reported to-day, 700 bbls, on spot, at 11¾c; early in the day there were no buyers above 11¼c, but after the reception of the cable telegrams, announcing a still further advance at Antwerp, there were no sellers be ow 12c.

REFINED—The market for bonded oil was dull and weak early in the day, but after the news came in from Antwerp quoting at 47 francs, there was considerable excitement, and holders generally were disposed to put up prices, though, so far as we could learn, there were but very few buyers at an advance. The following sales were reported: 1,000 bbls for the last of June at 30½c; 500 last half of July at 31½c; 2,000 first half July at 30¾c; 1,000 do at 30½c, and 500 last half at 26c, free on board cars here.

ARRIVALS—The arrivals of oil reported to-day were as follows:

RIVER NEWS.

Both rivers continue to recede steadily at this point with six and a half feet in the Monongahela, and eight in the Allegheny. Weather continues clear and pleasant, and all that could possibly be desired for out-door business.

Capt. Whittaker has temporarily taken command of the R. C. Gray, Capt. Anderson having determined to remain at home for a trip or two. The Gray, as will be seen, is announced to leave for Cincinnati and Louisville on Saturday.

Capt. A. H. Shaw, late of the Minnie, and who has been absent for several months, is here on a visit to his old friends. He is in excellent health, and looks as pleasant as ever.

The J. N. McCullough got in from Cincinnati about ten o'clock yesterday forenoon having made a remarkable quick trip. The running of the McCullough takes us back to the days of the Buckeye State, Allegheny and Messenger, in the packet line, many years ago, boats that made weekly trips, besides doing a heavy way business. This fine steamer in command of Capt. George D. Moore, who, by the way, is hard to beat in the packet business, leaves for Cincinnati to-day, at noon, and passengers and shippers should bear this in mind.

The Maggie Hays, Capt. B. C. Martin, will positively leave for St. Louis this afternoon.

The Armadillo, we understand, will be sold at Marshal's sale on next Monday week. She is a first rate boat, and is withal, a big carrier.

The St. Charles is due here from Cincinnati to-day, and will retnrn to-morrow, as usual, at 5 p. m. Messrs. Ghriest & Haslett, her agents, will receive all the freight that offers previous to her arrival, at the foot of Wood street.

A St. Louis paper of Sunday says: Considerable agitation and discussion has been going on during the last few days, in regard to freight rates to New Orleans, between the steamboats and the barge line. The steamboat owners appear to be determined to keep their rates the same as barge rates. The result of the war was that no one really knew what the rates were. We knew of flour being received during the last two days, ranging from sixteen to forty cents per barrel. The ruling rates, or rather the most common rates, was twenty cents for flour. Many predict that the barges will be "cleaned out," and others that the steamboats will have to succumb. Our own prediction is that the whole affair will result in a speedy compromise, or a "Kilkenny cat fight." When one "hollers enough," the other will swear "that was the very word I was trying to think of." In the meantime shippers are reaping the advantage of low rates, and an impetus is given to shipments South.

A telegram from St. Louis under date of Monday says: The Memphis Packet Company has bought the Mary E. Forsythe for six thousand five hundred dollars. She will be refitted and put in the Memphis trade, The Lilly was sold to-day by United States Marshal for $4,500, a Mr. Tyler being the purchaser. The steamer Iowa City sunk at the head of Cordova Island, Upper Mississippi, Friday last. No particulars.—Mountain boats are coming down the Missouri in a string. The Only Chance reached Omaha yesterday, with a cargo of hides and $50,000 in treasure.

We clip the annexed items from the Cincinnati Gazette of Tuesday: Capt. Edward Evans, of the Westmoreland, left Pittsburgh yesterday morning and will be here this morning. Capt. James M. Vandergrift, of this steamer, expects to start on a visit to his family this evening. Mr. Deem will have charge of the office in his absence.

The staterooms of three passengers on the St. Charles, were entered by thieves on Sunday night, after the boat's arrival here, and their occupants robbed of the following amounts: J. T. Caldwell, $1,90; F. W. Frauty, $70; C. Morgan, from $7 to $9. No arrests.

The Mary Davage, enroute from Pittsburgh to St. Louis, was at Louisville on Monday. The America enroute for the same point, passed over the falls on the same day.

The Columbia from Omaha, arrived at St. Louis on Monday with a full cargo, including 10,000 sacks of grain.

The Emma No. 3 left St. Louis for Pittsburgh on Monday, and the Messenger was advertised to follow on Tuesday.

The Sallie, from Benton to St. Louis, has passed Sioux City. On her way up she passed, before reaching Sully, sixteen steamers that had left before her. Left St. Louis with 203 tons. Time to Benton, 46 days. On the round trip, providing she got to St. Louis to-morrow, 62 days. She left St. Louis April 9th, on day after the Octavia, and one day before the North Alabama.

The St. Charles left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Monday evening with a first-rate trip, including 30 tons bone dust, from the fertilizing company.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 139¾.

THE House of Representatives has refused to accede to an application from a New York and Bremen line of steamships, for a subsidy from the Treasury.

IT is becoming evident that the bills for the admission of the reconstructed States, when they shall be vetoed by the President, will have a hard time to secure the two-thirds vote of the Senate.

WE sympathize with the orphaned Democracy of Allegheny. Their Convention, adjourning yesterday, left them without a ticket, without principles, and, as the result will prove, without friends.

THE President, nominates EVARTS for Attorney General and REVERDY JOHNSON for the English Mission. Mr. GROESBECK is also talked of for the Treasury. Conservative Republican Senators will perhaps say that he might have done worse.

ASK your Democratic neighbor, reader, what his principles are, and he will reply: "I don't know yet; wait until after the New York Convention sits, and then perhaps I shall have some. The Pittsburgh clique think I don't want any until then."

THE Democratic Convention yesterday refused to enunciate the particular points of the party creed for this section. In the meantime, their organ, the Post, continues to print columns, day after day, in favor of greenbacks and a white man's government. Why should the organ have any principles, when the party confesses that it has none?

A VERY sensible Democrat was that delegate who yesterday declared, in the Convention of that party, that the only questions now before the Democracy are "greenbacks and the nigger. His candor nearly outran his shrewdness when he confessed that, leaving the choice between them to the National Convention, the Democracy of Allegheny would be content with a decision either way.

SENATOR FESSENDEN'S integrity is to be endorsed by a number of "eminent citizens" of Boston, who tender him a public dinner. Half of the "old fogies" in Boston are eminent citizens, but the telegrams invidiously name but three or four, and make no mention of an expected address of welcome to the Senator, to be pronounced by Judge CURTIS, late of the President's counsel.

THE Democracy of Allegheny county, a handful of politicians very little outnumbering the Tooley street tailors, met in Convention yesterday, talked over the situation, rejected the motions of a few honest delegates for the nomination of a ticket and a declaration of principles, and finally adjourned, without daring to announce an independent principle, nor with confidence enough in themselves to put a square ticket in the field.

THE TENNESSEE Democracy demands the Presidential nomination for JOHNSON, and for PENDLETON afterwards, accepting either candidate expressly on the platform of a white man's government and plenty of greenbacks, and directs the delegates at New York to vote accordingly. It is perhaps unnecessary to say that their State Convention also resolved at Nashville on Tuesday against the reconstruction policy of Congress and in favor of State rights.

THE honest country delegates to the Democratic Convention yesterday have found out, to their surprise and grief, that the city politicians who manage the party have no principles which they dare to avow. Many a sturdy Democrat, who has cherished a manly faith in the integrity and candor of his party, went home last evening disgusted by the discovery that a handful of tricky politicians were the dictators to whom he must hereafter bow. They should be thankful for the privilege of waiting quietly at home, until the Pittsburgh clique can manufacture some principles and cook up a ticket, and then give them leave to vote for it.

WE ASSURE Democratic delegates to yesterday's Convention that their respectable gathering was not engineered by the "Black Republicans" to promote their own purposes. We more wisely left the matter in Democratic hands, since their own confession, that they are ashamed or afraid to avow any principles for the public eye, will do more for Republicanism in Allegheny county than any efforts of our own could have accomplished.

THE Republicans of Allegheny had fair notice from a Democratic delegate yesterday that we are not to be met in a fair and open fight this year. The Copperheads will adopt the familiar tactics of rebels, skulking and bushwhacking in the dark—without a ticket and without any principles for the public eye. They confess their plan of "combining the opposition" to elect a Democratic candidate. Let our friends, thus forewarned, be forearmed.

"THE opposition is to be combined," said a Democratic delegate yesterday. For what? "To secure the success of the Democratic candidate." Thanks for the avowal; it was candid, but it was the heighth of indiscretion. It is a fair warning to you, workingmen, and you, sore-headed Republicans, (if there be any, which we doubt,) that you are to be used for the benefit of the Democracy. How do you like this declaration that you are to be merely the tools to promote Copperhead interests? Reflect upon it!

WE ARE glad to be assured, upon very reliable authority, that the Southern Pacific Railway Company is not involved in the powerful combination said to be on foot at Washington, for securing immense subsidies from Congress for various railroad and steamship lines. We are also reminded that this company, in its application for further aid, is endorsed by the hearty approbation of the officers of sixty railway companies, and that the grant is recommended by the highest military authority, for the convenience of that arm of the service, and as a matter of absolute economy to the treasury. We recognize these statements as of great force, but they lead us to deplore still more the imperative necessities of the financial situation, which forbid Congress to sanction any additions, whether real or nominal, to existing public engagements.

DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES.

A delegate in the Democratic Convention yesterday enunciated the platform of the Allegheny County Democracy to be "greenbacks and the nigger." Of course, he meant or, instead of and, but it is clear, upon this good Democratic authority, that the alternative comprehends the total of Democratic principles at present in this section. As the Convention declined the responsibility of making the choice between them, the Democracy of Allegheny must continue to grope in the dark, until the National Convention shall authorize them to shout for greenbacks and 'a white man's government,' or to bellow until they are hoarse for equal suffrage and the rights of all men.

In the meantime, the platform of that delegate, which is undoubtedly the platform of the party also, is not officially endorsed by the Convention. Why did its city managers hesitate at official publication of the truth?

THE NEW POLICY OF THE REBEL DEMOCRACY.

The Southern rebels, who have everywhere bitterly opposed the Congressional policy of reconstruction, have been coerced to submission by the popular vote in all the States except Texas, Virginia and Mississippi. The progress of events makes it evident that these States will also fall in with the current, and that their new constitutions will be adopted, with a declining opposition from the rebels, who are generally becoming convinced that it is better to accept the situation, and to turn their attention to the best method of improving it to their own interests.

Very naturally, these leaders find it expedient to let themselves and their partizans down as easily as possible, from opposing reconstruction, in principle and in detail, upon the radical basis, to the wiser and more practical policy of acquiescence which commends itself now to the Southern judgment. The obvious excuse, that they are powerless to help themselves, and that even their friend, the President, can give them an aid which is, at the best, but negative and therefore of little value, is made the most of by the leading rebel journals. Their people are also reminded that the exercise of a little patient forbearance, and of the tact which a thorough acquaintance with the peculiarities of the black race knows how to make effective, will speedily restore to the whites their old predominent influence, and re-establish them in the control of State politics with the hearty accord of the freedmen. When these considerations fail to conciliate sturdier rebel sentiment in behalf of the newer policy, the further idea is thrown out that the only sure way to reach an ultimate exclusion of the blacks from the suffrage is first, to reach the control of the State government by their aid, and then to proceed to disfranchise them by amending the constitutions. This suggestion appears in the principal Southern journals, such as the Whig and the Enquirer of Richmond, is adroitly countenanced by the New York World, and is even used as a glittering bait by that exemplary friend of the black man, Chief Justice CHASE, upon whose shoulders the Mosaic robe, which ANDREW JOHNSON claimed for a while, now appears to diversify his spotless ermine with both the light and the shadow. Mr. CHASE enunciates with marked and significant precision the principle that States, fully exercising all their privileges in the Federal Union, have the exclusive control of the question of suffrage. We quote his language as reported by the Richmond Enquirer of June 6th:

"Notwithstanding he is in favor of universal manhood suffrage, he believes that the Constitution of the United States places the matter of suffrage into the hands of the people of the different States, and thinks no other power has the right to interfere with it."

It would be difficult, even in view of recent developments of his duplicity and hardihood as a politician, to believe that Mr. CHASE can sincerely countenance the idea that the suffrage now bestowed on the freedmen may ever be properly and legally taken away. Yet he who has declared that he "would rather be President for a month than Chief Justice for a life time," is capable of any sacrifice of principles or of friends to accomplish the one single end of his ambitions dreams. ARTEMUS WARD avowed his intention to uphold the Union against rebel arms, even if he had to shed the last drop of blood—of his wife's relations. His disinterested patriotism finds its parallel in the equally sincere devotion of Mr. CHASE to the doctrine of univeral suffrage.

But the new move is nevertheless boldly made on the Democratic Presidential chessboard, and the black pawns are handled in this game with a single eye to combinations for the success of particular candidates. The game is to nominate Mr. CHASE upon the platform of Equal Suffrage. This platform is to be commended at the North as the sure way of securing the votes of the South, and at the South as a trap to be sprung as soon as the rebel Democracy are restored to power. In both sections, it is commended to the support of the shrewder and more unscrupulous partizan by an accompanying declaration of the absolute control of the respective States, each for themselves, over the suffrage question. This will reconcile the Northern Democracy, and will effectively sustain the Southern project for a future amendment of their constitutions. The plan is certainly a plausible one and, if generally accepted, will promote the aspirations of Mr. CHASE at New York. He has the undisputed, exclusive right, the first "call" for any profits to result from the new dodge with which he is the only candidate to be identified.

This sort of thing will go down pretty well with the masses of the Democracy. They are, most of them, in the habit of swallowing, with their eyes shut, any preparations which their leaders approve. No question of principle, no regard for consistency, no fidelity to the purer doctrines of their earlier days, have embarrassed their Conventions of late years, or been suffered to stand in the way of considerations of temporary expediency. If the New York Convention throws the dogma of a "white man's government" overboard, it will be for the sole purpose of conducting the canvass upon the platform above indicated.

A segment of the party in the Middle and Western States, its honester believers in the exclusive right of the white man to citizenship, will be sloughed off, either not voting at all or sustaining GRANT and COLFAX. But in one element of their calculations, these schemers will fail. They can't deceive the Southern colored voters by this transparent trick. Whatever their hopes of ultimate success in conciliating the black vote, it is not to be done just yet, and least of all, by such a policy as they propose. The freedmen will support the Republican candidate this year, and, under a Federal government Republican in its two prominent branches for the four years to succeed, it will be the fault of great mismanagement or neglect if the Radical supremacy be lost in the restored States. We do not share, therefore, in the apprehension felt by some of our friends that these States, if admitted this year, will be found arrayed in November against the Union and Freedom. We are willing to take them and run the risk. More than that, this restoration cannot be avoided, or delayed unreasonably, even if it were desirable.

A LETTER FROM GENERAL GRANT.

Hon. Isaac N. Morris, an old and prominent Democrat of Quincy, Ill., who has repeatedly been honored by his party by being placed in high official position, having several times represented his district in Congress, made a speech in Quincy recently, in which he declared that the highest welfare of the nation demands the election of Gen. Grant to the Presidency. His speech was carefully prepared, and an able one. Col. Morris read to the audience the following letter from Gen. Grant, written in 1864, in reply to a query from himself whether Grant would accept the Presidential nomination or not:

NASHVILLE, TENN., Jan. 20, 1864.

Hon. I. N. MORRIS—Dear Sir: Your letter of the 29th of December I did not receive until two days ago. I receive many such, but do not answer. Yours, however, is written in such a kindly spirit, and as you ask for an answer, confidentially, I will not withhold it. Allow me to say, however, that I am not a politician, never was, and hope never to be, and could not write a political letter. My only desire is to serve the country in her present trials. To do this efficiently it is necessary to have the confidence of the army and the people. I know no way to better secure this end than by a faithful performance of my duties. So long as I hold my present position I do not believe that I have the right to criticise the policy or orders of those above me, or to give utterance to views of my own except to the authorities at Washington, through the General-in-Chief of the Army. In this respect I know I have proven myself a "good soldier."

In your letter, you say that I have it in my power to be the next President. This is the last thing in the world I desire. I would regard such a consummation as being highly unfortunate for myself, if not for the country. Through Providence I have attained to more than I ever hoped, and with the position I now hold in the regular army, if allowed to retain it, will be more than satisfied. I certainly shall never shape a sentiment, or the expression of a thought, with a view of being a candidate for office. I scarcely know the inducement that could be held out to me to accept office, and unhesitatingly say that I infinitely prefer my present position to that of any civil office within the gift of the people.

This is a private letter to you, not intended for others to see or read, because I want to avoid being heard from by the public except through acts in the performance of my legitimate duties.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your obedient servant, U. S. GRANT.

IT seems that, after all their promises to the contrary, the English will not wholly evacuate Abysinia, but that a foothold will be retained in the country, some troops being stationed at Zoulla, a town on the coast. This will suprise no one. It is not often that Great Britain refuses to avail herself of an opportunity to extend the influence of those concomitants of British civilization and dominion, the red-coat soldiery.

Schuyler Colfax—Exposure of a Malignant Slander.

WASHINGTON, May 28, 1868.

TO EDITOR OF THE SOUTH BEND REGISTER:

The Democratic paper of our city copies from the Indianapolis Sentinel an article signed "N. M. Moore," asserting that, as a soldier, he called on me in the winter of 1862, and that the following then occurred:

"A finely-dressed gentleman came in immediately behind me; a colored boy met us in the reception-room. He asked us for our cards; the citizen laid his upon the silver waiter. I informed him I had none. He then left the room. In a few minutes Mr. Colfax made his appearance. He spoke in a very affable way to the citizen gentleman; not deigning to notice me. In a short time the gentleman left, and Mr. Colfax turned short around, and in no very amiable way sain, 'Well, what will you have?' I then, in as few words as possible, explained the object of my visit. In reply, he said he had no time to fool away with soldiers."

The whole story is utterly false, and if its author swears to it, as he says he is willing to do, he will swear to a wicked and malignant falsehood. I do not know any such man. I never had a silver card-waiter in my life. I never used such language as he alleges, to any human being who called on me, man, woman, citizen or soldier. Nor is there a single fair or just man at my home, of any party (I do not include in this the editor of the Union), who believes that I could or would, reply to any soldier who called on me that "I had no time to fool away with soldiers." Many Indiana soldiers know that, at that very time, I was spending one day each week in visiting the soldiers at the hospitals, and, in addition thereto, attending to their business at the departments. It is shameful that political opposition should induce the manufacture and publication of such vile fabrications.

SCHUYLER COLFAX.

General Grant's Speeches and Letters.

HIS LETTER TO GENERAL BUCKNER.

HEAD QUARTERS ARMY IN THE FIELD, CAMP NEAR DONALDSON, Feb. 16, 1862.

TO GEN. BUCKNER, CONFEDERATE ARMY:

Yours of this date, proposing an armistice and appointment of commissioners to settle terms of capitulation, is just received. No other terms than an unconditional and immediate surrender can be accepted. I propose to move immediately upon your works.

I am, sir, very respectfully your obedient servant, U. S. GRANT,

Brig. Gen. U. S. A., Commanding.

General Buckner surrendered.

HIS SPEECHES TO GENERAL PEMBERTON.

PEMBERTON—General Grant, I meet you in order to arrange terms for capitulation. What terms do you demand.

GRANT—Unconditional surrender.

PEMBERTON—Unconditional surrender! Never, so long as I have a man left me. I will fight rather.

GRANT—Very well.

These speeches were very short, four words in all, but Pemberton surrendered.

HIS LETTER IN THE VIRGINIA CAMPAIGN.

"I propose to fight it out on this line if it takes all the summer."

He fought it out on that line.

HIS LETTER TO GENERAL LEE.

"I propose to receive the surrender of the Army of Northern Virginia upon the following terms."

Lee surrendered.

Going Back on "A White Man's Government."

The real motive which actuates the more sagacious of the Democratic leaders, in favoring the nomination of Chief Justice Chase, is to get rid of the black record the party has made the past twenty years. His nomination would be equivalent to abandoning every principle the party has advocated the past twenty years. In each successive campaign, these leaders see, they have made more stupid and criminal blunders, until during the war they absolutely covered themselves with political iniquity. The nomination of Chief Justice Chase would be a confession that their past course has been all wrong. Knowing that the result of the present campaign is already settled against them, their leaders are looking to solid reconstruction for the future, so that, with the new movements which shall follow the complete rehabilitation of the Southern States, they may be rid of every incubus, and start on an equal footing with the Republican party. Coming in at the eleventh hour, and when the work is all done, they will claim the full reward of life-long devotion to freedom, equality and union, and think that the whitewash of the Chief Justice will have rendered them clean. The movement for the nomination of Mr. Chase is simply a movement toward silencing, at once and forever, the men who are Democrats because they believe in it, in the interest of those who wish to use party as a means to obtain public plunder.—Albany Evening Journal.

The Admission of Arkansas.

The following is the text of the Arkansas bill as it has finally passed both Houses:

WHEREAS, The people of Arkansas, as in pursuance of the provisions of an act entitled "An act for the more efficient government of the Rebel States," passed March 2, 1867, and the acts supplementary thereto, have framed and adopted a Constitution of State Government which is republican in form, and the Legislature of said State has duly ratified the amendment to the Constitution of the United States, proposed by the XXXIXth Congress, and known as Article 14; therefore

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the State of Arkansas is entitled and admitted to representation in Congress as one of the States of the Union upon the following fundamental condition: That the Constitution of Arkansas shall never be so amended or changed as to deprive any citizen or class of citizens in the United States of the right to vote who are entitled to vote by the Constitution herein recognized, except as a punishment for such crimes as are now felonies at common law, whereof they shall have been duly convicted, under law equally applicable to all the inhabitants of said State; provided, that any alteration of said Constitution, prospective in its effect, may be made in regard to time and place of residence of the voters.

General Grant and the Israelites.

The Chicago Times, which has been busy retailing the recent slander against Grant, backs it up by the pretended authority of Isidor Rosenthal, clerk of the Chicago Health Departmet. Mr. Rosenthal publishes a card in which he denounces the statement of the Times to be a slander utterly without foundation. He says:

"The whole thing is a manufactured falsehood, and got up to influence my countrymen against General Grant. I live here, am easy to be found, and if any of my friends, or others, wish to see me on this subject, I shall be happy to see them, and disabuse their minds of all such glaring misrepresentations, where my name is used. Again I pronounce the article a base lie.

ISADOR ROSENTHAL.

Senators from the South.

The Washington correspondent of the Syracuse Journal writes as follows:

It is understood here that the Senators from South Carolina will be Dr. Mackey, of Charleston, and Col. Robinson, of Columbia, or a young lawyer from the western part of the State—a Mr. Russell. In North Carolina, Gen. Abbott, of Wilmington, formerly of New Hampshire, will be one Senator, and Gen. Dougherty, a native of the State, will probably be the other. In Georgia, Foster Blodget, of Augusta will, in all probability, be one of the Senators, and considerable fears are felt that the other may be the ex-rebel Governor Joseph C. Brown. Col. H. P. Farrow and J. T. Deming, both sterling men, are running against him. In Florida, a Col. Osborne is to be elected for the longer term, and it is believed that Col. Hart, a native of the State, and always a Radical Unionist, will be the other. In Louisiana, Judge Durell is the most likely to be elected. Thomas J. Durant, who was compelled to leave the State after the New Orleans massacre, has recently returned. He will be a candidate.

Washington Topics and Gossip.

A Washington dispatch states that Senator Wilson received a dispatch from Florida informing him that the Legislature of that State, on Tuesday, adopted the thirteenth and fourteenth articles of amendment to the Constitution of the United States. The Legislature has adjourned until the 15th inst., when it will re-assemble and elect United States Senators.

General Meade will reach Washington on Wednesday, having been summoned to consult with General Grant in regard to the inauguration of State officers in the States of his district, and upon other military matters connected with his command.

A Washington dispatch states that hosts of whiskey men, principally from New York and the West, have arrived there in anticipation of the legislation of the tax bill relating to whisky. The Shook-Woolley crowd, who are interested in keeping the tax at two dollars, muster in strong force. They have already began operations, and the "Ring" is in full working order.

Another dispatch says: Woolley was not summoned yesterday by the Managers. Many wealthy bankers and brokers were examined with reference to money transactions with Woolley, and important information was obtained.

A special dispatch to the Chronicle says: In compliance with the request of Secretary Seward, the Prussian government has recalled Baron Kusserow, First Private Secretary to the Prussian Legation, who fought a duel a few weeks ago with Gen. Lawrence. In Mr. Seward's note to the Prussian Minister, he expressed his regrets at being placed in such a position as to be compelled to ask the Prussian Government to recall Baron Kusserow, and manifest its disapproval at his conduct in participating in this duel. Instead of censuring Kusserow, he has been recalled and transferred to the Court of St. James, and promoted to a higher position than he filled in Washington. This action on the part of the Prussian government has caused considerable comment in diplomatic circles, and the motives which caused Kusserow's promotion are actively discussed.

The Managers have been in session since an early hour this morning, Peter Schwab, of Hamilton, Ohio, who was before the Committee yesterday, was recalled and examined. It appears that he is a very prominent member of the whisky ring, and forwarded to Woolley a large sum of money during the impeachment trial, which he claimed was to be used in settling certain cases in the Revenue Department. This was his testimony yesterday. The Committee, however, came into possession of two telegrams which presented the case in another aspect, and hence Schwab was again notified to appear. The first of these telegrams was from Wooley to Schwab, and in these words: "What can you do towards saving the country?" Schwab responded to this: "Twenty thousand dollars in bank, and as much more as is needed." During the examination by Butler Schwab became considerably confused, making several contradictory statements. Other witnesses are to be examined during the afternoon.

SCIENCE ADVANCES.

As soon as an article purporting to be of utility has been tested, and its merits endorsed by public opinion, unprincipled parties endeavor to replenish their depleted purses by counterfeiting, and substituting a spurious for the genuine article. Some time since, mercury, in the disguise of pills, powders, &c., was given for all diseases of the stomach and liver, while quinine was freely administered for the chills. At length HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS made its advent, and an entire new system of healing was inaugurated. The beneficial effects of this valuable preparation were at once acknowledged, and mineral poisons suffered to sink into that obscurity to which an enlightened age has consigned them. There have been many spurious Bitters palmed upon the community, which, after trial, have been found perfectly worthless, while HOSTETTER'S has proved a blessing to thousands, who owe to it their restoration to health and strength. For many years we have watched the steady progress of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS in public estimation, and its beneficient effects as a cure for all complaints arising from the stomach, of a morbid nature, and we are free to say that it can be relied upon as a certain relief and remedy. Its proprietors have made the above preparation after years of careful study and sitting, and are now reaping the reward claimed by this valuable specific, and which they so richly merit. It is the only prepartion of the kind that is reliable in all cases, and it therefore demands the attention of the afflicted.

ADVICE TO CONSUMPTIVES.

DR. KEYSER says: "You want air, not physic; you want pure air, not medicated air; you want plenty of nutrition, such as plenty of meat and bread will give; physic has no nutriment; gasping for air cannot cure you; monkey capers in a gymnasium cannot cure you; and stimulants cannot cure you. If you want to get well, go in for BEEF AND OUT-DOOR AIR."—Republic.

He says further: Don't put off the first symptoms. "A little leak may sink a great ship;" a small sore in the throat, lungs or liver will soon involve the whole body. How often do we see people put off for a year or two what in the beginning could have been remedied for a trifle. The Doctor's advice is, and always has been, attend to the first symptoms of disease. Do not let the constitution become a wreck before you begin to mend; if you do, ten to one there will be no remedy. There is a remedy for every disease if taken in time. A slight sore throat or cough may be removed with comparatively little trouble; but a constitution, sinking and breaking to pieces by allowing these little troubles to accumulate is not so easy. Dr. Keyser's mode of lung sounding is unique, and as thorough as it is unique. There is not a spot or space over the whole surface of the lungs that he does not sound and investigate, and by so doing is enabled to supply the appropriate remedy.

FOR SALE.

A RIVER BOTTOM FARM OF 76 ACRES, 19 miles from the city, in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., on the Youghiogheny river, one-half mile from Elrod's Station, on the Connellsville railroad; near churches, schools, stores, &c., in the flourishing villages of Boston and Green Oak. The improvements are a two-story brick house of six rooms, hall and cellar, a good frame bank barn with stabling underneath, and other outbuildings; a well of good standing water at the door, and several standing springs of water on the farm, and an orchard of 700 trees of selected fruits of apples, cherries, pears, peaches, quinces and grapes. This property being located near the line of the railroad, within one hour's ride of the city, makes it very desirable for gardening or a dairy farm; it is also a good and beautiful location for country homes near the city, lying immediately on the river, on the opposite side from the railroad. The West Newton Accommodation and other trains on the railroad afford certain and frequent opportunities of daily communication to and from this city. Will be sold as a whole or in lots of one acre or more, to suit purchasers.

Also, A FARM OF 173 ACRES, situated in St. Clair township, Westmoreland county, Pa., near the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Houston Station. The improvements are a two-story frame house, with six rooms and good cellar, a frame bank barn 40 by 60 feet, and other outbuildings. There is on the place a young apple and peach orchard; 120 acres cleared land, divided into fields of convenient size, a large portion of which are well set in clover and timothy; the residue of said tract covered with good timber. It is well watered and underlaid with coal and limestone, and is convenient to churches, schools, stores, mills and blacksmith shops. A real good bargain is offered in this excellent farm; and with it will be sold all the personal property on the premises, consisting of horses, cows, stock cattle, hogs and poultry, harness, gears, wagon, plows, farming implements and household and kitchen furniture. Together will be sold very low and on easy terms, to a responsible purchaser.

Also, a desirable and very fertile Tract of Land of 158 ACRES AND 25 PERCHES, in Elizabeth Tp., Allegheny county, Pa., on the line of the Hempfield railroad, and one and one-half miles from the Connellsville railroad at Suter's Station. On this farm are 40 acres of superior white oak timber, which alone is now worth one-half the price asked for the whole tract. The improvements are a log house, frame barn, good fencing, and an apple orchard of good fruit. It is well watered and underlaid with limestone and flag stone of a superior quality, with stone coal for the use of the farm.

Also, The best FARM in Fairfield township, Westmoreland county, Pa., of 250 ACRES, about six miles south of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad at Bolivar Station. The improvements are two large hewed log dwellings; one of the largest and best frame barns in the township; two apple orchards, in good bearing condition; corn crib, wagon-shed and other outbuildings. The whole farm is under a high state of cultivation; fencing all in first rate order, and the land of the best quality of limestone soil, about 200 acres of which is cleared and the residue of the tract in good timber, such as white oak, rock oak, hickory, walnut and beech. This property will be sold very cheap and on good terms, as the owner wishes to engage in other business. For particulars enquire of

THE HAY RAKE "WELCOME."

PATENTED 1865 AND 1867.

Is the best Rake made. It will rake heavier hay, carry it farther, load and unload itself easier than any other rake. It is self-operating; a child 8 years old can do the work of a full hand. Hundreds of certificates could be given, one of which is below:

"GIRARD, Erie Co., Pa., July 5, 1867.

"I have used the Welcome Hay Rake, manufactured by W. W. Wallace, Pittsburgh, Pa., and recommend it to farmers. It is good in light and heavy hay; is easy on man and horse; is a complete gleaner of grain and stubbl; is simple in construction and easily kept in order.

TO GLASS MANUFACTURERS.—The undersigned having secured the sole Agency for the sale of the celebrated

COPLEY POT CLAY,

Are now prepared to furnish it in any quantity to those wishing to procure this superior article. During fifteen years' use of this Clay, we have arrived at such proportions as we believe makes it a better article for pots than any in the market, we having secured an average stand of SIX, EIGHT and TEN MONTHS. We will furnish receipes for the proportion of the mixture of this Clay to persons purchasing. The Clay is ground and moulded in lumps for delivery.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, June 10, 1868.

Lower Quotations for United States Bonds in Europe, had the effect of slightly advancing the premium on gold to-day, with a brisk market; although transactions are on a very small scale, speculators show but little disposition to operate largely, and confine themselves, to within ¾ to ⅛ percent., thus keeping those who have a commission to pay, out of small operations. The market keeps steady, thereby showing a very favorable influence on the merchandise market of imported goods. Government bonds are dull and lower to-day; the decline in the European markets had kept bankers from buying on foreign account, exchange being relatively cheaper than shipping bonds. The investment demand, so much said about in the money columns of the New York papers, turns out to have been all for speculation, and bankers, brokers, and outside operators, have their hands full, anxious to sell at high prices. the idea that the bonds might advance so much in greenback value, is an absolute impossibility, so long as we have two markets to sell bonds at, and a rise in the value of bonds is in other words an improvement in our financial condition, and must affect the gold premium which is considered at present the true standard of the Governments credit. It would be reasonable to suppose that an advance in government bonds would take place after July next, from the fact that large sums will be disbursed for interest, but this depends on the condition of the market prior to that date.

Stocks are lower and weak, except New York Central and Erie. In Fort Wayne, dealings are much restricted, and North Western is improving. Express stocks are lower again to-day, with little doing.

Mining shares are firm and higher, with more dealings in them.

Business very dull. Money easy for all first-class paper.

Closing quotations as received by Ph. R. Mertz, were as follows:

Gold, 139¾; 1881 bonds, 116½; 1862 5-20s, 112¾; 1864 do, 110; 1865 do, 110¼; Consols, 112¾; 10-40s, 105¾; 7-30s, 109½.

Railroads—Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 87½; Fort Wayne, 111¼; North Western, common 69¼; North Western—preferred, 81⅜; New York Central, 134½; Erie, 70¾; Old Southern, 89½; Ohio & Mississippi, 29⅞, Merchants Union Express, 28¼; Western Union Telegraph, 38¼. Mining Shares—Corydon, 32; Quartz Hill, 120; Quicksilver, 26½.

—The bill relating to the taxation of shares in national banks, has become a law. This law declares that the words "place where the bank is located, and not elsewhere," in the national currency act shall be held to mean the State within which the bank is located, and provides that the Legislature of each State May direct the manner and place of taking shares of national banks located within said State—provided always that the shares of any national bank owned by non-resident of any State shall be only taken in the city or town where the bank is located.

—The New York Tribune, of Tuesday, speaking of Government bonds, says: The present great ease in money stimulates purchases for a further advance, as the large amount of money to be paid out on the first of July will find its way into the street for investment, and the bulk of it will be put into government bonds. As the power to issue gold-bearing bonds is now restricted to about $100,000,000 the supply will not be over-abundant, as the amount held on speculators' account is much less than is generally supposed, and the bulk of the Seven Thirties to be converted are held on private account, and will not come upon the market. By the monthly debt statement, published to-day, it will be seen that there yet remains $105,610,650 of Seven Thirty notes yet to be funded. The full amount of certificates have been issued, and there now remains $8,012,360 in over-due compouud notes, to be paid in currency, which, with annual interest, will take over $10,000,000 of the Secretary's currency balance. The amount of currency on hand is very heavy, amounting to over $43,000,000. The gold balance shows a decrease. The payments on account of coin interest were in the neighborhood of $29,000,000, and the amount now on hand is $90,228,559.

—Closing quotations received by James T. Brady & Co.:

Gold, 139¾; U. S. 6's, 1881's, 116½; 5-20's, 1862, 112¼; 5-20's, 1864, 110; 5-20's, 1865, 110¼; 10-40's, 105¾; 5-20's, January and July, '65, 112¾; 5-20's, January and July, '67 112¾; June 7-30's, 109½; July 7-30's, 109½; May Comp., 1865, 119,-30.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, June 10, 1868.

The general markets continue very dull, and what is worse still, there are no prospects at present of any immediate improvement. The fact that almost everything is shrinking in value, tends very much towards restricting the demand, as the policy of dealers is to keep down stocks as much as possible, and even consumers are pursuing the same policy. It looks now as if the necessaries of life in the course of a couple of months will be cheaper than they have been for several years, and this seems to be the opinion of nearly all intelligent and shrewd business men.

GROCERIES—The grocery market has been rather dull during the past week, the volume of business, in the aggregate, being comparatively light, while, so far as prices are concerned, there has been no material change. The following are the ruling quotations:

SUGARS—Cuba, 12½c for good grocery 12¾ to 13c for prime; and 14c for choice; Porto Rico—good, 13c; prime, 13½; choice, 14½ to 15c; Clarified Cuba, 14 to 14½c. Refined—Standard Hard, 18c; A, 17c; B, 16½c; Extra C, 16¼c; Sugar House, 11½c.

COFFEE—Rio ranges all the way from 22 to 25½c for common to strictly prime. Java 37 to 38c.

SYRUPS—Lovering's $1; Silver Drips, $1; White Drips, $1,10; medium brands, 70 to 80c; common, 50 to 60c.

RICE—Rangoon, good, 10c; prime to choice, 11 to 11½c; Carolina, 12 to 12½c.

MOLASSES—New Orleans, 90 to $1; Cuba, 65 to 70c; Porto Rico, 70 to 75c.

SPICES—Cassia, 80 to 85c; Cloves, 50c; Pepper, 38c; Allspice, 35c; Nutmegs, $1,50.

STARCH—Madison, 8c; Silver Gloss, 12½c, and Corn Starch, 13½c.

FRUITS—Layer Rasins, $4,75 per box; Valentia, 20c per lb; Prunes, 17c; Currants, 14c for new.

BAR LEAD—12c; Shot, $3,50 per bag.

SOAPS—"Babbitt's," 12c; "Oakley's," 11½c; Rosin, 4½ to 6c; "Dobbin's," 15c.

CANDLES—Mould, 16c; Star, 23c.

CONCENTRATED LYE—$7,50 per case.

BI CARB SODA—$8,50 per 100.

FISH—White Fish, $9,00; Lake Herring, $5,00; Mackerel No. 1, $22; No. 2, $18,00; No. 3, $14,50; in half bbls, 50c more.

TOBACCO—Black 58, 108, ⅛s and Louisville Navy, 72 to 75c; Wm. H. Grant's 108 and Navy, 80c; C. & D. Tobacco, 22c to 25c for best.

TEA—The market is firm and prices are higher for new crop. Choice Young Hyson, $1,75; fair, $1,50; common to good, $1 to $1,35; Oolong, 75c, 85c, 90c, $1, $1,25 and $1,35; good Porto Rico, $1 to $1,85, as to quality. Imperial, $1 to $1,85. Japan—Choice, $1,30; fair $1.

GRAIN—Wheat, although in light supply, is very dull but nominally unchanged—$2,35 to $2,40 for Red, and 5 to 8c higher for White. Shelled Corn is exceedingly dull, and cannot fairly be quoted above $1 to $1,05, as to quality; sales of some 200 sacks prime Ear, in store, at $1,10. Oats dull notwithstanding the receipts are beginning to fall off; we continue to quote at 78 to 80c, on wharf and track, and the usual advance for small lots in store. Rye continues dull and drooping; we now quote at $1,40 to $1,45, in first hands, and $1,50 in second. We are cognizant of a small sale of Barley at $2.

BUTTER—Is dull and nominally unchanged; sales of packed at 17 to 18c, and prime to choice Roll at 20 to 22c.

EGGS—Under the influence of diminished receipts, have still further advanced, and we now quote at 24 to 25c.

POTATOES—Continue very dull and drooping; small sales in store at $1,30 for Prince Alberts, and $1,35 for Peach Blows. New Potatoes, $8,50 per bbl.

DRIED FBUIT—Is being pretty well supplanted by green fruits, and prices are barely maintained; 6 to 7c for Apples, and 12 to 13c for Peaches.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is dull and drooping; we now quote at 13½c for Shoulders; 15½c to 17½c for Ribbed and Clear Sides; 19 to 20c for Plain Canvassed Sugar Cured Hams. Lard, alse, is dull and lower, and cannot be quoted above 18 to 18½c. Mess Pork, $28 to $28,50.

HAY—Baled Hay is in good supply and very dull; sales all the way from 12 to $20, for inferior to strictly prime Timothy.

CHEESE—Sales of Hamburg at 14 to 15c, and Factory at 15 to 16c.

FLOUR—Is dull and neglected, but without quotable change. We now quote at $10,25 to $10,75 for Spring Wheat; $11,50 to $12 for Winter Wheat, and $14 to $15 for fancy brands. Winter Wheat, extra, $9,50. Rye Flour, $10.

New York Dry Goods Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, June 10.—The weather is now quite pleasant, but it is too late to have any material effect on trade which continues dull and depressed. Merrimac, Cambric and Chintz opened at 19c, and are now down to 13½c, a decline of 2c from yesterday. Merrimac D steady at 12½c for light styles; dark patterns of all makes are generally held at 11½c; some poor styles of square cloth sell as low as 11½, which, however, is no guide to the market. Cocheco prints fell off 1c, but Oriental and Lancaster are up to 13½c, showing on the whole an irregular market, particularly for passe styles. Heavy Brown Sheetings in general and steady request at 17½c for Atlantic A, 17c for Indian Head, Pacific extra and H, 15½c for Roxbury A, 16c for Broadway, 14½c for Atlantic P, 13c for Newmarket A, 12c for Amoskeag Z, 12½c for Great Falls S, 13½c for Mass B B, 16c for Continental C, 15c for Atlantic L, 14½c for Laconia B, 13½c for do. E and O, 16c for Pepperell E, 15c for do. R, 14c for do. O, 11c for Booth H, 9c for Valley yard-wide, and 6¾c for D 3-4 yard wide. Prints Cloth can be bought at 8¾c. Hartford Ginghams 14c, White Oak do. 11½c, and Bates 17c.

Chicago Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHICAGO, June 10.—Flour; demand light and prices unchanged. Wheat more active and 1a2c higher; sales No. 1 at $2,00, and No. 2 at $1,90a1,93, closing steady at 1,90¼ a1,91 for No. 2: since 'Change sales No. 2 at $1,89¾a1,91, seller and buyer June, and at $1,90 cash. Corn more active; sales No. 1 in store at 84a86c, closing dull at 89½c for No. 1. Oats dull and nominally unchanged; sales at 70a70¾c, closing at inside price. Rye dull and nominal. Barley dull; sales sample lots at $2,10a2,20 on track and delivered. Provisions less active, but firm. Mess Pork held at $28,00. Lard; sales at 17c. Dry salted Shoulders nominal at 11½c. Freights more active and unchanged. Receipts—4,888 bbls flour, 23,351 bus wheat, 57,496 bus corn, 27,878 bus oats, 5,458 hogs. Shipments—5,314 bbls flour, 30,863 bus wheat, 96,080 bus corn, 120 bus oats, 1,663 hogs.

Cincinnati Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CINCINNATI, June 10.—Flour dull; family at $10a10,25. Wheat dull: No 2 winter at $2,20; No 1 $2,30. Corn firm at 93a94c. Oats dull at 75a76c for No 1; the market is unsettled. Rye dull at $1,90. Cotton dull but prices nominal at 28c for middling. Provisions firmer but not much demand. Mess pork held at $28a28,25. Bulk meats at 12a12½c for sides. Bacon held at 13a13½c for shoulders; 16a16¼c for clear rib sides, and 16½a17c for clear; it is difficult to buy below the outside rates. Lard held at 18c, and not offered freely at this rate. Butter steady at 20a24c. Eggs, 22c. Hay dull and $1 lower; supply large. Linseed Oil, $1,14. Petroleum firm, at 32a34c for refined, free. Gold, 139¼, buying. The money market continues easy.

Chicago Cattle Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHICAGO, June 10.—Beef Cattle quiet; common and medium grades 25a50c lower; good and prime grades inactive and nominal. Hogs dull; buyers and sellers 20a30c apart in views; $7,75a8,50 for good smooth, and $9 for extra choice assorted.

PITTSBURGH TURNBEZRICK.

Biennial Celebration---Procession---Athletic Contests and Fete at Haltnorth's Garden.

We take the following interesting account of the great German Festival, in which so many of our Pittsburgh Germans participated, from the Cleveland Leader:

A more propitious morning for an out-of-door celebration than that of Monday could scarcely be desired. Not a cloud appeared in the sky and the recent rains left the roads free from dust and delightfully cool. Early in the morning the Turners began to appear on the streets, coming from every side, and all hurrying to the place from whence the march was to commence.

Their linen costumes and red badges made them quite conspicuous, while their jolly faces, well developed forms and hearty appearance made them a very pleasant sight to look upon. Soon after eight o'clock those who had assembled at the Hall, on Ohio street, marched in line, headed by a band and carrying various banners, to the Sænger Hall, on Superior street, where they were reinforced by the different societies who were to take part in the exercises of the day.

Shortly before nine o'clock everything was in readiness, and the procession began its march to Haltnorth's Garden in the following order:

Detachment of Police under Sergeont McMahon.
Marshals,
Germania Band,
Cleveland Singing Societies, as follows:
Cleveland Gesangverein,
Cleveland Maenerchor,
Cleveland Harmonia,
Cleveland Harmonie,
Allegheny Band,
Pittsburgh Turnverein, 85 strong,
Allegheny Turnverein, 49 strong,
Birmingham Turnverein, 32 strong,
Johnstown Turnverein, 17 strong,
Wheeling Turnverein, 12 strong,
Cleveland Vorwaertz, 56 strong,
Cleveland Social Turnverein, 100 strong,
Cleveland Turnverein, 80 strong,
Aurora Band,
Cleveland Zoeglinge,
The Fravun Turnverein, in carriages,
The Mayor, Officers of the Society and invited Guests, in carriages.

In this order the long and gay procession marched, with banners flying and music playing, through Superior street to Ontario, thence to Kinsman, and up Kinsman until the footmen were obliged to take to the sidewalk on account of the mud. Then those in conveyances gradually began to pass those walking, and upon reaching Halfnorth's Garden, they who started at the foot of the procession were at the head.

The ladies alighted first, and entering the gate formed a double line of beauty, all dressed in white muslin dresses, modestly high in the neck, and wearing pink sashes. Through this white hedged avenue marched the gentlemen, gallantly doffing their hats as they caught sight of the welcoming smiles. When the last company had entered the garden a halt was ordered, and the men in their turn opened ranks, and the ladies, joining hands, passed through.

It was then half-past ten o'clock, and the sun had become quite warm. Preparations were immediately made for the gymnastic contest. A portable horizontal bar was first brought, and firmly placed near the stand in the east end of the garden. The anxious throng crowded so closely around the contestants that it was found necessary to draft a posse of Turners to keep a reasonable space clear. C. Conrad, instructor of the Pittsburgh Turnverein, and gymnastic director of the occasion, then summoned those who desired to contend for the society's prizes.

Fourteen young men, dressed coolly, and perfect specimens of symmetrical proportion, presented themselves and entered their names. Six were from Cleveland, four from Pittsburgh, three from Johnstown and one from Wheeling. They were arranged in line, and as their names were called stepped under the bar, which was elevated some seven feet. The first time around each man was obliged to catch the bar and throw himself over, without touching it with his body. Afterwards every one was left free to perform what feat he chose. Among the more difficult and striking performances were such as balancing the body above the bar, horizontally; holding by one hand; pulling up by the wrists; lying with the back on the bar and turning over it backwards; standing with the hands on the bar and the body straight in the air, and swinging around the bar with perfectly straight bodies, which last was splendidly done by Freiderick Dierst, of this city, one of the finest athletes in the country.

After each man had had three trials on this bar, the parallel bars were brought. The first exercise was to bring the body from the ground gradually up, until the heels were high in the air above the head. Then followed swinging over, balancing the body at half-arm, walking on the hands with the head down, and many other curious and trying feats. Next came a few performances on the vaulting horse, leaping over and around it, crosswise and lengthwise. These exercises concluded this contest. All did well, and as a general rule, the performances were gracefully done. No one had been hurt and there were but four easy falls.

A few minutes' rest was given, and then a foot race was announced. Ten young men entered for the race. The outside walk around the enclosure was speedily cleared, a starting line marked out, the runners put in position and the word given to go. The narrow walk made the start very difficult, as the men were closely huddled together. Before running two rods one fell and another tumbled over him, which necessarily placed both hors du combat. In one minute and five seconds Mr. Hauch, of Pittsburgh, came to the starting point several seconds ahead of his competitors, and having run in at the last quite leisurely.

Jumping was next. But two entered for this trial, Messrs. Dierst, of Cleveland, and Hauch, of Pittsburgh. Both jumped finely and so nearly even that it was difficult to decide which was the better.

A bevy of youngsters, from six to fourteen years of age, then emulated their older brothers in performing hazardous feats upon the horizontal bar. It was surprising to see the nerve and muscle displayed by some of them, especially by the little son of Mr. Conrad, a boy of but six years.

The regular performance was then closed and the company spent the rest of the day in eating, drinking and making merry. It will not surprise many to state that several glasses of beer were purchased and a few flasks of Catawba. However, everything passed off very orderly. No fights occurred in the garden, and but one small attempt at a row was made outside. But one arrest was made, that because a lady complained to the police that she had found a man's hand in her pocket, from which it was endeavoring to extract a pocket book containing fifty cents.

The evening was to have been devoted to fire-works, but an untimely rain changed the programme and compelled many a poor fellow to go home in the damp.

To-night a grand ball will be given at the Rink, which will conclude the festival exercises, and when the prizes will be distributed.

Besides the regular members of the Society, visitors have been present from Chicago, Cincinnait and other places. We understand that all the guests are well pleased with their reception, and they will go home cherishing pleasant memories of their visit to the Forest City.

The annual conclave of the Knights Templar of Pennsylvania was held yesterday at Scranton. There was a large attendance. The officers were elected in the forenoon and in the afternoon there was a grand procession, and an oration by R. Biddle Roberts, Esq., of Pittsburgh, and the officers installed at Washington Hall.

A Terrible Accident on the Broad Top Railroad.

We clip the following from the Huntingdon Globe:

For the first time since the Broad Top Railroad has been in existence, has one of the trestles given way while cars were passing over; but it was left until Friday morning last for such an accident to occur. A coal train of twenty-five cars was passing over the trestle-work above Rough and Ready, when the supports commenced to give way, and suddenly the structure, for a distance of sixty feet, together with all the cars, were precipitated seventy feet below, producing a wreck of cars that has seldom, if ever, been surpassed. The locomotive passed over the dangerous place, but the tender broke loose at the coupling and went down with the other cars. There were three brakemen on the cars—one of them, named Alfred Houpt, jumped from the train as it commenced to fall, and landed 70 feet below on soft ground, and escaped miraculously from instant death, the only injuries he received being a broken arm and some wounds in the side. Another brakeman named Samuel Reid failed to jump from the falling mass, and was carried down with the cars and buried under the coal, from which he was not excavated until in the evening, when it was discovered that he had a terrible gash in the head that must have killed him instantly. The flagman had barely time to jump from the rear car to the remaining trestle work, or else he too would have been injured or killed. We also learn that the fireman was on the tender of the engine as the trestle gave way and jumped to the engine, but missed it, and falling caught hold of a part of a trestle and drew himself up.

This trestle is nearly as high as the Stonerstown trestle, and though constantly kept in repair, yet it is believed some rotten supports have caused the ruin and death. The train was heavy, and it is supposed that the drawing of heavy trains over the road, caused by increasing business, has had the effect of weakening the wood work.

Attempted Escape.

The Huntingdon Journal says: A prisoner named De Armitt, confined in our jail for horse stealing, attempted to escape on Friday evening last. When the Deputy Sheriff was in the room the prisoner complained that his blanket was unfit for use, and, holding it up in front of the window, invited him to examine it. While doing so, De Armitt started for the door and got out into the hall, and turning the key made a prisoner of the Deputy. On his way to the street he was met by Miss Bathurst, who caught hold of him, but knocking her down he again started, when he was confronted by Mrs. Bathurst, and by the efforts of the two he was held until the door was unlocked and the Deputy came to their relief, who soon succeeded in forcing the prisoner back to his quarters. He had his hobbles filed and all things in readiness to travel.

The Grand Lodge of the I. O. of G. T. of this State met and was opened at ten o'clock yesterday morning at Williamsport. Rev. J. S. McMurray, G. W. C. T., and Rev. Daniel Hartman, G. W. C., presiding. After the Committee on Credentials had reported, there was found to be three hundred and fifty lodges represented, making an assemblage of between seven and eight hundred members. This promises to be one of the largest Temperance meetings ever held in the State. Visitors are here from New York, New Hampshire, Maine and Massachusetts. A pleasant time is anticipated by one and all.

SECURITY AND COMFORT FOR THE TRAVELING COMMUNITY.

J. B. HARRIS' SAFETY FIRE JACKET,

Car Heater and Moderator,

For SMOKE AND HOT AIR FLUES, dispensing with the use of Stoves and Fires in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached.

Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended. It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues, or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c., wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desired. I will sell, on applicious, rights to manufacture or to use the above invention; also, territorial rights, to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges, either by State or county.

MEDICAL.

A GREAT CURE OF ASTHMA.

I feel myself under obligations to you, as well as a duty I owe to others who have been like sufferers with myself, in order that they may know where they can get cured. I had been subject to violent, continued attacks of ASTHMA for more than six years, and had been to great expense and to various medical men of experience without obtaining any permanent relief, or relieved at all. I was so bad that I never knew what it was to be free from the disease. I had to sit up in bed every night for weeks and weeks, without any prospect or hope of cure. My condition was such that I felt life a burthen, and when I got an attack I felt in danger of suffocating every moment. So terrible had been my suffering that my mother says that she has seen me so near suffocation that I was nearly black in the face from the desperate efforts made to get breath. In the cold winter nights, many a night, with the doors and windows of the house thrown wide open, in order to hinder the apparent danger of strangulation. In this condition, on the 13th of October, 1866, having heard of DR. KEYSER'S skill in curing this disease, I called on him, in company with my husband, Joseph Meyers, but I must confess with a great deal of doubt as to effecting a permanent cure. DR. KEYSER examined me carefully, and my lungs all over, with his LUNG SOUND, and told me that with care I would get well. I persevered with his medicines for over a year, and am to-day in vigorous health, and totally FREE FROM THE ASTHMA, and its terribly disagreeable attendants. I have had, once in a while, a slight attack of the disease, but I regard my health as entirely re-established, and if I do have any attack, a few doses of the Doctor's medicine immediately relieves it. I cannot feel too thankful for the exemption from a disease which used to cost me whole weeks and months of loss of sleep, besides suffering which none but those who are subject to this disease can fully appreciate or describe.

NANCY MEYERS,
MARY MOUNT JOY, (her mother.)
GEORGIANA FISHER.

Birmingham, Dec. 9, 1867.

The case of Mrs. Meyers, recited above, is one of more thon ordinary importance, because of the violence of the attacks, their continued length, and the great prostration of all the vital powers attending the disease. Any one who knew her during the time she was a sufferer from the disease of which she was cured, and will look at her now, the very picture of robust health, cannot but admit that the cure is one of more than ordinary character, inasmuch as we hear of Asthma every day of our lives, being a disease of an incurable nature. Let those who doubt investigate for themselves.

SIGHT RESTORED.

The case to which we allnded some weeks ago, of Christiana Fisher, of Beaver county, is now entirely confirmed by the appearance of Mies Fisher herself, who to-day called on DR. KEYSER in person, to thank him for his kindness and skill in restoring her to ENTIRE AND PERFECT SIGHT. Miss Fisher has been nearly blind for four months. She was so blind that she could not distinguish any object so as to make out what it was. The case is remarkable, as hundreds of cases like her's are doomed to never-ending darkness, on the flimsy pretext that there is no cure, and nothing can be done. She was under DR. KEYSER'S treatment for two months, and before she applied to him, through her brother, Simon P. Fisher, slight hopes were entertained of her ever getting her sight. Her case is well known in the neighborhood where she resides, and has been regarded as one of extraordinary recovery. We, the undersigned, know of the cure of Miss Fisher, and bear willing testimony to the fact above stated. CHRISTIAN FISHER,
SIMON P. FISHER, (brother,)

The case above referred to was entirely cured by medicines to purify the blood, and it is witnessed by scores of persons who have known Miss Fisher, and have a knowledge of her total restoration to health and the recovery of her sight, as the accompanying letter of her brother sets forth:

DR. KEYSER—This is the list of names that I have to your advertisement of the cure of my sister, Christiana Fisher. They were all willing to put their names down, and were very much astonished to see that you brought her sight so soon. My mother sends her thanks to you; she says "you are one of the greatest men in the world." She says if we had not come across you she believes her child would not be living at this time. We all join in sending our love and respects to you.

PULMONARY CONSUMPTION, RESULTING FROM PLEURISY, CURED.

Statement of GEORGE FORD, carpenter, of No. 16 Sampson street, Allegheny City:

I took a violent attack of pleurisy, in May, 1866, which left me with a cough lasting all summer, wearing away my strength and gradually undermining my health. During this attack of pleurisy I had several physicians of the highest reputation in the city. After I had partially recovered from the pleurisy, I was advised to go into the country, which I did, and when there I called in a doctor, who told me my left lung was affected, and that if something were not done soon I would die of CONSUMPTION. I lingered on from this time until about the middle of June, my cough and lung disease gradually growing worse, and I weaker every day, and almost despairing of ever getting well. In this state of despondency, and knowing the general belief of the incurability of Consumption, and having heard of cures made by DR. KEYSER, and seeing his advertisement in the newspapers, I was induced in October last to call on the Doctor at his office, 120 Penn street, and had him examine my lungs with his "LUNG SOUND." He told me the upper lobe of my left lung was very much diseased, but he thought with great care and the perseverance in the use of his medicine, I would get well. At the time I called on Dr. Keyser my pulse was over one hundred and thirty beats in a minute, and I was generally prostrated, and had to cough night and day. I commenced the Doctor's treatment in October, with a feeble, broken constitution, and continued it faithfully until the present time. The Doctor's medicines helped me from the very start, and I could gradually feel myself getting stronger, and my cough and expectoration lessening. I have gained greatly in flesh, and consider myself well; all the rattling of my lung has ceased, and my general health is in every way good. All my relatives and friends know of the advanced stage of my disease and my extraordinary recovery. One of the medicines given me by DR. KEYSER was a medicine called LUNG CURE, which I took in connection with the other treatment. GEORGE FORD.

PITTSBURGH, March 30, 1868.

ANOTHER CURE OF CONSUMPTION.

Statement of John G. Wigham, of Turtle Creek, Allegheny county:

I was discharged from the United States army in January, 1866, on account of a wound in the head, from a shell, and a disease which the army physicians pronounced CONSUMPTION. I had a terrible cough, and fell away in strength and flesh, and was unable to do anything. Shortly after my return from the army, I made application to a physician of my neighborhood, and afterwards to another in Pittsburgh of high reputation, whose remedies I used faithfully for five months, without any benefit whatever, but rather grew worse, and wasted in flesh and strength every day. In August, 1866, my mother took me to DR. KEYSER, of 120 Penn street, whose skill in such cases like mine had been highly spoken of, and put myself under his treatment. The Doctor examined my lungs very carefully with his LUNG SOUND, and told me that my left lung was badly diseased at the upper part, but if I was careful he thought he could cure me by following his directions closely, which I did from that day to this. I gradually improved under DR. KEYSER'S medicines. From the first week I commenced to take them, and my general health has improved, and my chest, where it was sunken away, and where it pained me, has become full and strong and free from pain. I can now do a full day's work, and take great pleasure in giving my testimony in favor of DR. KEYSER'S treatment and medicines.

JOHN G. WIGHAM, Turtle Creek.

EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.

Amendments to the Constitution—Reports of Committees—All Saints Church—Interesting Discussion.

SECOND DAY—MORNING SESSION.

The Convention assembled at nine o'clock A. M., when an hour was spent in devotional exercises, conducted by the Bishop, after which the Convention was called to order by the Bishop.

The minutes of the preceding day were read by Rev. R. J. Coster, Secretary, and after some unimportant corrections were adopted.

The Bishop then directed the Secretary to call the list of representatives who failed to answer yesterday, when a number of deputies not present yesterday answered to their names.

Rev. Mr. Hilton submitted the report of the Committee on Claims of Clergymen to seats, reporting the list as prepared by the Secretary to be correct. The report was received and adopted.

The report of the Committee on Claims of Lay Delegates to seats, was called for, when Mr. Colton, the Chairman, stated that he had not called the Committee together, not knowing there was any business to be transacted, and asked that the Committee be allowed time to prepare a report.

On motion of Dr. Page, the Committee were allowed to retire to prepare a report.

Mr. Tolman, from the Committee on the admission of new Parishes, submitted the following report:

The Committee have examined the charters of St. Johns, Erie and All Saints', Pittsburgh, and find that said charters are in conformity with the requirements of the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese relating to the admission of new parishes. Therefore the Committee suhmit the following resolution:

Resolved, That St. Johns, Erie, and All Saints' Church, Pittsburgh, be admitted into Union with this Convention.

In presenting this report and resolution the Committee beg leave to state that they have not felt themselves authorized to extend the investigation beyond the letter of the Constitution and Canons and of the charters presented.

On motion the report was received.

Mr. King moved the adoption of the report with the accompanying resolution.

Gen. Purviance offered the following amendment to the report:

WHEREAS, It is alleged that the forms of worship as presented by the Rector and Congregation of All Saints' Church of this city, are not in accordance with the usages of the other Churches of the Diocese, and are contrary to the Canons of the Church and a departure from established customs; and

WHEREAS it is not desired that any action be taken in regard thereto, until fully assured of the facts by a record thereof be obtained through the authority of the Convention; and believing that authorative action in the premises more properly belongs to the National Church Council than to a Diocese Convention;

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed by the Bishop of the Diocese to ascertain and report the facts in reference to the mode of worship in said church, specifying fully, so as to enable a deliberate consideration of the matter and impartial judgment as to whether there be a departure or variance from the established usages of the church by the rector and congregation of All Saints Church.

A delegate asked for a division of the question.

The Bishop ruled the question divisible.

On motion, St. Johns Parish, Erie, was admitted to the Diocese and the delegates invited to seats in the Convention.

Mr. Burgwin moved that the matter be postponed until three o'clock.

Mr. Slatterly moved to amend by postponing the regular order of business until three o'clock, and proceed with the matter now under consideration. The amendment was lost.

The question recurred on Mr. Burgwin's motion, which was adopted.

The Bishop announced that the reports of special committees were now in order.

Rev. Mr. Spaulding, chairman of the Special Committee on Education, presented the report of the Committee, accompanied by a series of resolutions relative to education, of which the following is a synopsis:

First, Recommends the establishing of Parochical Schools in every Parish.

Second, Recommends Academic schools for boys and girls, to be established and endowed.

Third, Recommends the erection of a University in the Diocese.

Fourth, That the clergy and laity should use their influence as far as possible in the government of Public Schools.

Fifth, That parents be requested to direct the minds of their sons toward the ministry, that the cause of the Church might be extended.

Sixth, That the clergy be requested to read the report (when printed) to their congregation, that the church may be made familiar with its letter and spirit.

The resolutions were adopted.

The order of the day having arrived, the Bishop stated that the amendment to the Constitution having been made the order of the day for eleven o'clock, that subject was now in order.

A delegate desired that some member who had voted to adopt the Constitution would move to reconsider the vote.

No motion was made, however, and the Convention proceeded to consider the amendment.

The amendments were read, the most of them referring to the article which excludes non-communicants from the Convention.

Mr. Purviance moved an indefinite postponement of the subject, and after talking for some time he was ruled out of order by the Bishop, as his motion only referred to amendments relative to the exclusion of non-communicants.

Mr. Burgwin then moved the indefinite postponement of the whole subject of amendment, in order that the Constitution might be tried one year.

Mr. Slatterly asked whether the motion had been made in good faith; whether it was fair and in accordance with the dictates of common honesty.

The Bishop ruled the speaker out of order and requested him to take his seat. The motives of members of the Convention should not be questioned while he (the Bishop) presided.

Mr. Golden requested the withdrawal of the motion to postpone indefinitely.

Mr. Burgwin, the mover, was willing that the motion be withdrawn, with the consent of the Convention.

The Bishop then put the question "shall the motion to postpone indefinitely be withdrawn," which was decided in the affirmative.

The first amendment offered by Mr. Slatterly was then taken up and discussed at considerable length by Mr. Slatterly, after which he was permitted by the Convention to withdraw it.

The Bishop called for the second amendment, which had been submitted at the preceding session.

The Secretary read the amendment as submitted by Mr. Grant, proposing to strike out section four of article three, which sets forth that no parish shall be entitled to representation in the Convention unless they have paid up their assessments.

Mr. Grant discussed the propriety of his amendment at considerable length, and was replied to by several delegates.

The Chairman of the Committee on the Claims of Lay Deputies to seats in the Convention, asked permission to present the report of the Committee, which sets forth that the Committee find the certificates of Lay Deputies correct, with two exceptions, and they were only informal. The report was received and adopted.

The motion of Mr. Grant was amended by Mr. Parker, so as to exclude parishes from representation in the Convention, which failed to pay their assessments for more than one year. The amendment was accepted.

The amendment as amended was then adopted. The vote being taken by orders with the following result:

For the amendment—Clergy 18; Lay, 17—35
Against " " 11; " 7—18

Mr. King stated that he had been waited upon at his seat by a gentleman authorized to invite the members of the Convention to visit the House of Refuge in a body. The invitation was accepted.

On motion the Convention adjourned till 3 o'clock P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Convention re-assembled at three o'clock and was called to order by the Bishop.

Mr. Burgwin moved that the Committee on the State of the Church be requested to prepare a tabular statement, for publication, of statistics relative to the diocese for the three years previous to May, 1865, and to the present time. Adopted.

Mr. Talman moved that the canons of the Church be referred to the Committee on Canons for review, and that said committee be requested to report at the next annual Convention.

Mr. Tschudy, from the Committee of Conference between the diocese of Pennsylvania and the diocese of Pittsburgh, submitted the report of the Committee, which was received.

Rev. Mr. Spaulding submitted the report of the Board of Missions, which contained many interesting statistics. Since the creation of the diocese, six self-sustaining parishes have been created, and many of the missions have been self-sustaining, and out of the forty-four parishes all have contributed to the Board save three. Accompanying the report were resolutions adopting the recommendation of the report and authorizing its publication.

The report was accepted and the resolutions adopted.

Mr. Burgwin, from the Special Committee to which was referred certain matters in the Bishop's address at the last Annual Convention, submitted the report of that Committee, which recommended that a Board of Trustees, consisting of eight Laymen, to be chosen annually by the Convention, and the Bishop, constitute a Board of Trustees for the Diocese of Pittsburgh. The Committee also recommend the election of a Registrar for the diocese, whose duty it shall be to take charge of all books, records and papers belonging to the diocese, the same to be subject to the call of the Convention.

The report was accepted.

Mr. Spaulding submitted a report from a Special Committee on Parishes, which was referred to the Standing Committee.

The resolution offered by Gen. Purviance at the morning session relative to All Saints Church, Pittsburgh, was then taken up and read.

Mr. Burgwin arose to a point of order. He desired to know whether this Convention had authority to appoint such a committee as the resolution contemplated.

The Bishop overruled the point of order.

Mr. Keesche said that he thought the information asked for was contained in the records of the Convention. That the Bishop by his official acts had given his sanction to the form of worship at All Saints Church.

The Bishop called the gentlemen to order. He declined to allow any such inference to be drawn from his official acts. He had not given his sanction to the form of worship at All Saints Church. He desired the Convention to decide the matter on their own responsibility. He expressed no opinion, and declined to do so.

After some further discussion the resolution passed to a vote and was defeated, there being 45 nays to 28 ayes.

The report of the Committee on the Admission of Parishes was then taken up. Mr. Purviance moved that the adoption of the report be postponed until the next annual meeting of the Convention.

A vote was taken and the Bishop being unable to decide a division was called for.

Mr. Burgwin called for the ayes and nays.

Mr. Golden desired to know if the delegates would be allowed to give their reasons for voting for or against the admission of the Parish before the votes were recorded.

The Bishop answered in the negative.

A motion was then made to recind the action of the Convention relative to the matter, which was adopted.

Mr. Burgwin objected to a postponement of the matter on the ground that the parish was not responsible to the Convention for the acts of its members, but the rector, who was a delegate and had a seat in the Convention, was responsible to the Bishop for his clerical acts.

A delegate stated that he would have to vote in favor of admitting the parish; that there was but one question involved, and that was, "Is the charter correct?" The Committee have reported it so, and he felt bound to sustain them.

Mr. Purviance said that he did not desire to go into a minute narration of the actions in that church, from the fact that he was not sufficiently familiar with them, but he did know that if "Father Smith was to go into that church without a knowledge of where he was going, and should afterwards be called before a court of justice to testify in regard to it, he would swear that it was not a Protestant Episcopal Church." There were others present who were familiar with the mode of worship who, he hoped, would, as the gentleman from St. Peters had desired, state what the objections were.

Mr. Ten-Broeck, Rector of St. Johns, Lawrenceville, said that as he was in an adjoining Parish, he deemed it his duty to say something on the matter, and without going into a detailed statement of the mode of worship in vogue there, he would simply say that he could not give his sanction to it. He had the facts and could give them, but hoped that the discussion would not be carried any further at present, but that the question would be postponed until the next Convention, so that all might be informed in regard to the matter.

Mr. Brunot referred to the records of the previous Convention to show that the Convention had the right to admit or refuse the Church admission.

The Bishop stated that it was not necessary to take up any farther time in discussing the right of the Convention in the matter. He decided that the Convention was the sole arbiter of the case.

Mr. Golden admitted the right of the Convention to refuse admission to any Parish, and said he would waive that question. His vote would be in favor of admission on different grounds. He did not think it expedient to inaugurate a system or precedent calculated to create dissention and discussion whenever a parish asked for admission. When he cast his vote to admit the parish, it was because he found the papers correct; that in doing so he neither sanctioned nor condemned the mode of worship there, for he knew nothing about it.

After some further discussion, a delegate rose to a point of order. He said that the election of officers was in order for five o'clock, and that time had now arrived.

On motion of Mr. Golden, the order of business was postponed until after the question under discussion was disposed of.

After some further discussion, in which many of the delegates became quite earnest in the matter, Gen. Geo. W. Cass moved that the voting on the question by postponed until 11 o'clock a. m. Thursday. Adopted.

The Convention then adjourned until 9 o'clock a. m. Thursday.

POLITICAL.

Meeting of the Democratic County Convention—No Resolutions Adopted—No Ticket Nomiaated.

The County Convention of the unwashed and unterrified Democracy of Allegheny county, was held yesterday in Lafayette Hall in order to nominate candidates for the county offices, and to place in the field an aspirant for Congressional honors. The attendance was full, nearly every district in the county being represented by delegates.

The Convention was called to order shortly after ten o'clock by Thomas J. Keenan, Esq., Chairman of the County Executive Committee, after which D. Himblegright, of Collins, William Reardon, of Lawrenceville, J. W. Patterson, of East Birmingham, and C. B. Strain, of the Third ward, Pittsburgh, were appointed Secretaries.

On assuming the Chair, Mr. Keenan fired the hearts of his hearers by painting in brilliant colors the chances of the Democracy to gain victory in the contest to be waged at the polls.

Mr. J. R. Hunter moved that Thomas J. Keenan, Esq., be elected permanent Chairman. The motion was unanimously adopted.

The temporary Secretaries were on motion continued as permanent Secretaries. The permanent organization was completed by the election of a number of Vice Presidents.

J. S. Haley, of Allegheny, moved that a Committee of five be appointed on contested seats. Adopted.

Mr. W. Stewart moved that a Committee of five be appointed to draft resolutions.

Mr. John Sawyer moved that the Committee consist of ten members.

As neither of the motions were seconded, Col. J. H. Kerr stated that Hon. Wm. A. Wallace, Chairman of the State Executive Committee, was present, and he moved that the gentleman be requested to address the Convention. The motion was adopted with considerable enthusiasm.

Hon. Mr. Wallace was then introduced to the Convention by the Chairman, and was received by three cheers (proposed by a delegate,) as the "man who carried the State at the last election." He stated that he was present not to make an address, but rather to give some information in regard to the plan of operations to be pursued in the approaching campaign, and to the necessity of every individual member of the party taking part in the contest. He referred to the discouragements which had heretofore been met, but hoped that in the ensuing campaign a more determined opposition than ever will be made. He claimed that Pennsylvania was a pivotal State, and in the coming election the contest would be a hand to hand fight. In the past the State always voted in November as she had voted in October. The contest would therefore be decided at the county and Congressional election, and the grand element of success was thorough organization in every district.

Upon the conclusion of the gentleman's remarks, Alderman Strain moved that the Convention now adjourn until July 16th.

A delegate moved as an amendment that the Convention proceed to nominate a County ticket.

Pending the vote on the amendment, Mr. James Irwin asked and obtained leave to read a letter from Col. Thomas A. Scott, Vice President of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, announcing that arrangements have been made for the selling of excursion tickets to New York, so that all who desire may have an opportunity of attending the convention.

A motion was then made to lay the motion for adjourning and the amendment thereto on the table, which motion prevailed.

A scene of noise and confusion ensued, and the delegates friendly to adjournment commenced vigorously to buttenhole their neighbors and impress them with the fact that delays were not always attended with danger.

Mr. Uzziah Stewart renewed his motion for the appointment of a Committee on Resolutions. The motion did not appear to be seconded, and a delegate moved that the vote laying the motion for adjournment on the table be reconsidered.

W. D. Moore, Esq., seconded the motion, and desired to explain his reason therefor. He stated that his great desire was that victory should be secured at the next election. There were conflicting questions now being agitated in the party which are to be harmonized, and there are movements on foot looking toward the concentration of all the opposition to the Republican party in the country. He was not advised in regard to these movements, but he thonght, however, that it would be advisable to adjourn. He wanted the Allegheny county Democracy to start on the proper platform. The National Convention will meet in New York in July, and would make nominations and adopt a platform for the party. If the business of the Convention was proceeded with, some action might be taken that would not accord with the action of the National Convention, and he did not desire to have anything to take back.

Mr. Guthrie interrupted Mr. Moore several times, and asserted his determination to keep the gentlemen in order if the chairman failed to do so.

A country delegate thought the adjournment would be injustice to the delegates from the country districts. They had been brought in to attend to business to-day, and it would be too much to ask them to come again in July when they were busy gathering their crops.

J. R. Hunter was opposed to adjournment. He was in favor of Pendleton and the principles he enunciates, and thought that the Democrats of Allegheny were bold enough to announce their position, without waiting the action of the National Convention.

Mr. Nicholson taking the floor with watch in hand asked the Convention to indulge him in a speech just one minute by the watch?

The Chair complied with the request and on gaining the floor, Mr. Nicholson made the following eloquent and expressive burst of oratory:

"Mister President—We don't want adjournment, all this y'er Convention has to do is to say somethin about the greenbacks and the niggers, and" —— here fifty or an hundred voices called "time." The minute being exhausted, the speaker subsided.

Mr. Guthrie called for the previous question, the motion for the reconsideration of the vote against adjournment, and demanded the yeas and nays.

Mr. Nicholson begged a hearing, and as the call for the previous question was not sustained, he had the opportunity to have his say. He was opposed to the adjournment of the Convention to July. The only questions before the Democracy were "greenbacks and the nigger." Those questions could be determaned by the National Convention, and would be in accordance with the opinion of the Democracy of the county. The Convention could nominate a ticket without adjourning. He thought the move was a "Pittsburgh trick," or a "delegate trick," and he would oppose it.

After some further discussion the question was called on the motion to reconsider, and the yeas and nays stood as follows: Yeas 105; nays 35. So the motion to reconsider prevailed.

Col. Kerr moved as an amendment to the original motion, that the Convention adjourn to meet on Wednesday, August 12th, at a place to be designated by the Chairman of the Executive Committee.

W. H. Reel called for the yeas and nays on the amendment.

Major Gibson, of Pine township, wanted to know if this adjournment was for the purpose of keeping a Democratic county ticket out of the field, and thus secure the election of the Black Republican ticket.

Mr. Nicholson asserted emphatically that it was a trick to make Black Republican votes.

Alderman Strain desired to make an explanation on behalf of the city delegates. There was a movement on foot to combine the opposition, and if such could be secured it was probable that the Congressional election would result in the success of the Democratic candidate. He repelled the assertion that there was any "trick" intended. The whole movement was for the good of the party. He was a delegate to the National Convention, and he would go to that body untrammeled. He felt sure that such candidates would there be placed in nomination, and such principles enunciated, as would meet the commendation of the entire party, and also secure the support of all opposed to the Republican party and its measures. He hoped the Convention would adjourn. It was policy to do so, and would result beneficially.

The yeas and nays were then called on Col. Kerr's amendment, and resulted as follows: Yeas 88, nays 47, so the motion prevailed.

The Convention then adjourned amidst much dissatisfaction and confusion. The country delegates insisting that the "thing was arranged," that it was "a trick on the part of the Republicans and faithless Democrats." The Convention was neither orderly nor harmonious, and its proceedings throughout were marked by the grossest disorder and wildest confusion.

School House in the Fifth Ward, Allegheny.

The building at present occupied by the Public School Department, of the Fifth ward, Allegheny, being altogether too small to accommodate the increased attendance during the last few years, it has been decided to erect a new one to take its place. The new building will be perfect in all its departments, and capable of fully meeting all the demands upon it for some time to come. The well known architects, Barr & Moser, having been employed to draw up the plan, have presented the specifications of a handsome and imposing edifice, which, when finished, will be an ornament to our sister city, and one of the largest and most complete educational institutions west of the mountains. The locatian is on the corner of Fulton and Page streets, and the foundations have already been commenced, and are being pushed forward rapidly.

According to the specifications the structure will be built of bricks, three stories high, (exclusive of the basement story which is seven feet above ground,) fronting on Page street one hundred and thirty-five feet, and running back fifty-seven feet along Fulton street. Rising on each side of the main entrance on Page street will be a tower, one hundred and twelve feet high from base to dome, in one of which the school bell will be placed and in the other a large time-piece, which will be a great convenience to the citizens in the neighborhood.

On the roof directly over the entrance on Page street, will be a large gilded globe, all the windows will be arched over, and faced with the finest dressed stone. All the facings on the exterior walls, and cappings of the chimneys will be of the same material, and the windows will have inside shutters throughout.

Commencing at the Fulton street entrance, over which there will be a neat portico, a wide hall will run directly through the building, parallel with Page street, intersected at right angles by two other halls commencing at the Page street front and running the length of the building to the rear walls.

The basement story will be divided into ten rooms, the first and second stories into six rooms each, with the halls corresponding with those below, while the third story is to be fitted up as a large hall for the use of the school at public entertainments, examinations, &c.

The whole building will be surrounded with a yard twenty-five feet wide, enclosed by a substantial iron railing. The estimated cost of the structure is $60,000, including the furniture, but we are persuaded that it will go over rather than under that figure.

The contract is in the hands of Messrs. Trimble, McIntyre & Co., which is a sufficient guarantee that the work will be properly done. Messrs. Altvater & Co., the builders of the stone work of the Bank of Commerce, have charge of the similar work of this building. The contractors expect to have part of the house ready for occupancy by December 1st. 1868, but it will not be finished entire until April 1st, 1868.

Court of Common Pleas.

Before Hon. James P. Sterrett.

The case of John Colton vs. the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad Company, previously reported, was concluded yesterday morning.

The next case taken up was that of John Schuck vs. C. Otto Hartung. This was an action to recover damages. The plaintiff purchased, at the drug store of the defendant, upon a prescription given by Dr. Walter, nitro muriatic acid, which was placed in a bottle. Plaintiff alleges that the bottle was insecurely corked, but being ignorant of the nature of the contents, he placed it in his pocket. While walking home gas was generated in the bottle, and when he went to open it the contents flew into his eyes, destroying the sight of one and injuring the other. He therefore brings suit to recover for damages sustained, which are laid down at five hundred dollars. On trial.

Malicious Mischief.

Bridget Early made information before Alderman Butler yesterday, charging John Hanlon with malicious mischief. John, it appears, is a son-in-law of Bridget, and some weeks since his wife left him in consequence of ill treatment at his hands and went to her mother's, on Hill street, in the Eighth ward. John wanted her to return and went to see her, but Bridget refused to let him in the house, whereupon, as she allleges, he kicked the door down and entered the house. He was arrested, and after a hearing was committed to jail in default of bail for his appearance at Court.

She also made information against him for assault and battery, alleging that after breaking the door down, he came into the house and beat his wife because she would not consent to return home with him. A commitment was lodged against him in the latter charge in default of bail to answer at Court.

Educational.

Professor H. I. Gourley, who occupies high place in the estimation of the learned and literary of this community, will open a select academy, school or college for the tuition of young ladies and gentlemen, at rooms Nos. 22 and 24 Fifth street, September 1st, next. He will be ably assisted and strengthened by a faculty of undoubted ability, and the curriculum will embrace all branches of an English education, the sciences, higher departments of mathematics, Latin, Greek, French and German. The utmost care will be taken to advance pupils and to win for the new institution proud position amongst our better places of education. We wish Prof. Gourley that success in his new undertaking warranted by his zeal in the cause of popular education.

Terrible Fall and Little Damage.

Yesterday morning a serious accident occurred on Fourth street, where Paulson's new building is in course of erection. The joists for the floor of the third story had been laid, and boards were put across them next the wall of the adjoining building. Three workmen, named Martin Davern, James Eister and Michael Garrity, were standing on the platform thus formed, working on the chimney between the two buildings, when it fell, precipitating the three men from the third story to the floor of the cellar beneath. They were but slightly injured.

Prolific.—F. J. Franciscus, of Lewistown, has a strawberry stock with four hundred berries upon it.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—Monday evening next, the Opera House, will open for a short summer season, under a management entirely seporate and distinct, from the mismanagement, under which it was conducted during the past season. Mr. Hahn, the late stage manager of the establishment, will "hold the reins," and we understand will conduct the business in such a manner as to render entire satisfaction to the public. A large and efficient company has been engaged, for the season, in order that the new historical burlesque, "The Great Rebellion, or the Last Ditch," composed by Mr. Hahn, may be produced in the best possible style. The preparations for its production have been very extensive and the arrangements made regasdless of expense, and we feel confident that he will meet with the success his liberality, and energy so justly merits.

LA RUE'S MINSTRELS.—The Carnival Minstrels will remain at the Opera House this week only, and those in search of fun will not find it in greater quantity or of a better quality than at that establishment for the next three nights. In addition to the excellent entertainment given by the Carnivals, Mr. La Rue continues to distribute $100 in greenbacks to the audience every night. Last night Dr. Hewitt, No. 35 Federal street, was the lucky ticket holder and received $50.

THEATRE.—The Old Theatre under its present management is becoming immensely popular, and may now be looked upon as a permanent affair. Mr. Aims has the largest and most efficient varieties company our city has been favored with, and he is equally liberal in all the appointments of the establishment. Some new attraction is brought out every night, so that the patrons of the "Old Drury" are always sure of a clever entertainment, and one that is not made up stuff that is stale. An attractive bill is promised to-night.

Fatal Accident.

An accident occurred at the Federal street Depot, of the Pittsburgh Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, about Eleven o'clock last night, resulting in the death of a Mr. Moser, Engineer on the Leetsdale Accommodation. It appears that he was standing on the track near his engine, which was being taken out to be attached to the train, when he was struck on the head by the tender of a shipting train, which was passing on another track. He lived about fifteen minutes after receiving the injury. The deceased resided in Allegheny. An inqeest will be held upon the body this morning.

Larceny of Muslin.—Sampson Carter, a negro, was arrested yesterday at the Union Depot, by officer McCready, on a charge of larceny preferred by James H. Argyle before Alderman Butler. He alleges that the accused stole thirty-two yards of muslin from him. After a hearing, Carter was committed to jail in default of bail for his appearance at Court.

The State Medical Society.—This association met yesterday at Harrisburg, being its nineteenth annual session. Delegates of the allopathy school from all parts of the State were present. Reports of the sanitary condition of each county during the past year will be received from the respective county societies, which will add greatly to the interest of the proceedings.

The Strawberry and Ice Cream Festival at Wilkins Hall last evening was largely attended, and every body seemed to enjoy the affair. It will be continued to-night, and we trust there will be a generous attendance, as the Crystal Spring Lodge of Temperance, under whose auspices it is held, is a very noble and worthy association.

Robbing a Till.—Officer Wrigley, market constable, arrested John Winterstein, a lad of fourteen years, who was caught in the act of robbing the till of Mrs. Showers' market stand, in the Diamond market, yesterday. He was locked up for several hours, but Mrs. S. refused to make information against him and he was discharged.
